"87" rules Jackie. I am not going to tell you about B.S. I am going to tell you the truth, okay? It has been a really nice period of knowing you in 5th grade. I think that you are really smart and would really like to be successful in the future. Don't get me wrong, I won't let you keep up the good work in playing softball. Good luck in college and of course with the guy. (Main reason) I will regret it (unless it is with a very cute hunk like you). I.T. and good-bye Belmont and don't forget K.I.T. and your friends.

High school is over and so are our school days. We are going in separate ways, but that doesn't mean that we won't see each other again. I will always remember you as a sweet and nice girl, even though we had a lot of fights. And also because you are very special to me. My wishes are: luck, happiness, and success. Remember that if you ever need me I'll be there to help you.

*Capturing
the Magic!*

Everything we said is true!

When will they believe us?

People who think they know Belmont are always blown away when they discover that everything we tell them is true. They say that we can never be as good as we say we are. Not only are we as good, we are better!

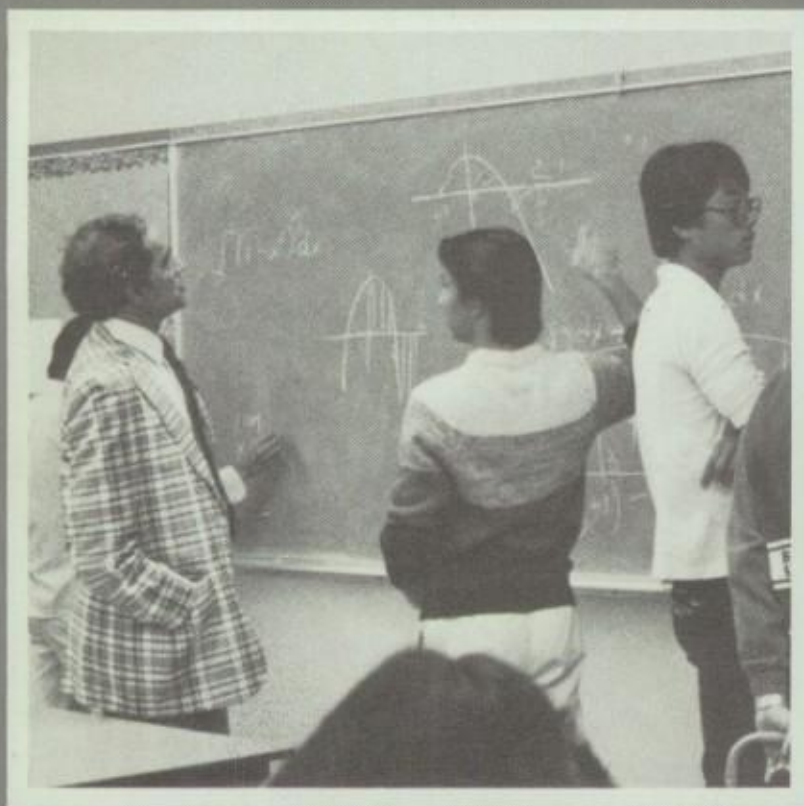

Again, we did well in sports!

Again, we did well in academics!

Again, we did well in the arts!

Yes, we showed that we are not just good. We are outstanding!

Capturing the Magic!

The Belmont student—a tradition of

There must be something special about us!

Teachers who have transferred to other schools often come back to visit us, and invariably one of the questions they are asked is, "How is the new school?" And invariably the answer will start with, "Well, it's not Belmont..."

Belmont is not just a school—it is a state of mind. The Belmont students are just a little more genteel, just a little more caring, just a little more thoughtful than students from other high schools. To be a Belmont student is to be special. That is a tradition that began in 1923!

To someone very special, Jackie
I wish you the best of luck for your upcoming future. And for you to get all your goals. Don't EVER change!
KEEP IN TOUCH!

*Capturing
the Magic!*

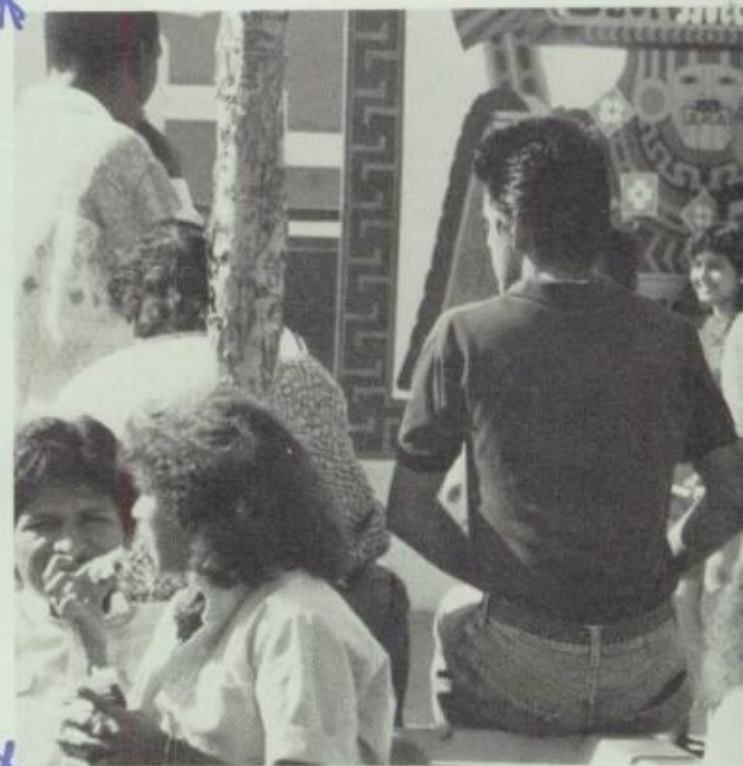

Somehow
we made it!

I can't remember all the details, but I was riding my motorcycle down the Coast Highway. On my bike with me was a gorgeous chick with her arms wrapped around my waist holding on for dear life. I don't think I even knew the girl. She leaned forward so that her mouth was near my ear, and as she started to say something — I woke up! My nose was flat against page 89 of my algebra book. There were days like that! We slept through some of our classes, and cut others. Even on days when we were present and awake, our minds wandered. Our homework was late, and some of us tried to hand in all our homework on the last day of the semester. Some of our teachers were convinced that we would never, ever learn, but somehow we did. Somehow we made it!

the Magic!*

One of Belmont students' favorite pastimes is eating. Students anxiously await nutrition when they can get something to stuff their mouths with even though the food might not be very appetizing. Students don't always look forward to classes, but they always look forward to lunch where they can meet with friends to discuss who got the best date for the coming Friday night dance. Lunch is also a time of suffering for those girls who are on a diet and see a person stuffing a chocolate bar into their face everywhere they turn.

Pigging out

Capturing the Magic!

Reading, writing, and arithmetic were only parts of our school life. Regardless of how hard the teachers plotted against us, we were determined to have fun! Along with nouns and pronouns, phylums and classes, and debits and credits, we will remember the dances, the football games, and falling madly in love on the way to history class! There were the Walkmans that we had, which we knew we were not suppose to have in school. And there were the "ghetto blasters" that we thought were so cleverly hidden in our backpacks. There is no way on earth to forget the ultimates for any and all Sentinels: a Tommy's hamburger and (the ultimate of ultimates) the unequaled thrill of a victory over arch-rival Marshall High School!

Those were the days!

Hi Jackie,
Although we really haven't gotten to know each other very well, I want to wish you all the best in your future. I'll always cherish my memories
at Belmont, because people like you make it so great. Take care
it so great. Friends

Capturing the Magic!

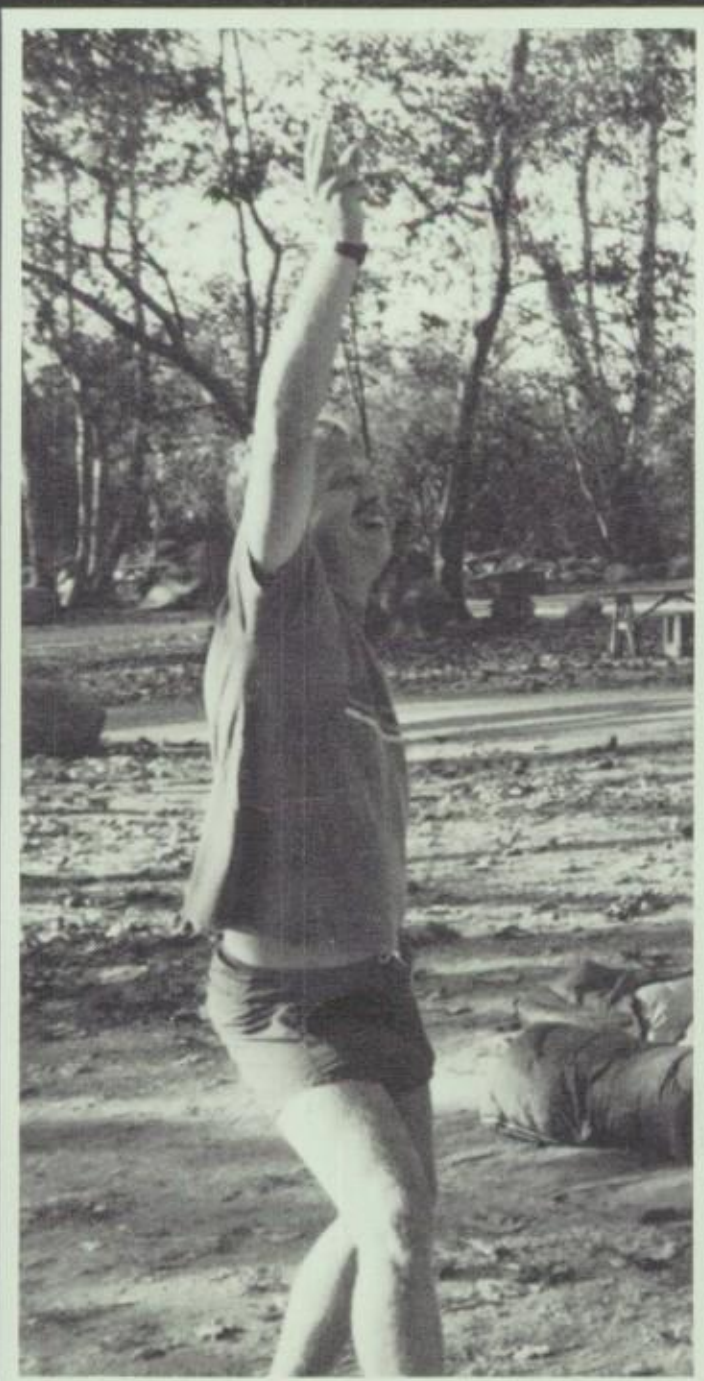

School is a lot more than just books, tests, and teachers. All one has to do is look in the right places. Belmont offers many activities in which the students can express their creativity, ingenuity, and most important of all, their point of view.

At Belmont the main source for these activities is the several organized groups. There are groups in which emphasis is placed on culture; there are also other groups who place emphasis on having fun, an example of such a group is Long Trip. The members of this organization work at carnivals to raise money for weekend trips. Other groups organize lunchtime contests, which are fun to watch and even more fun to participate in.

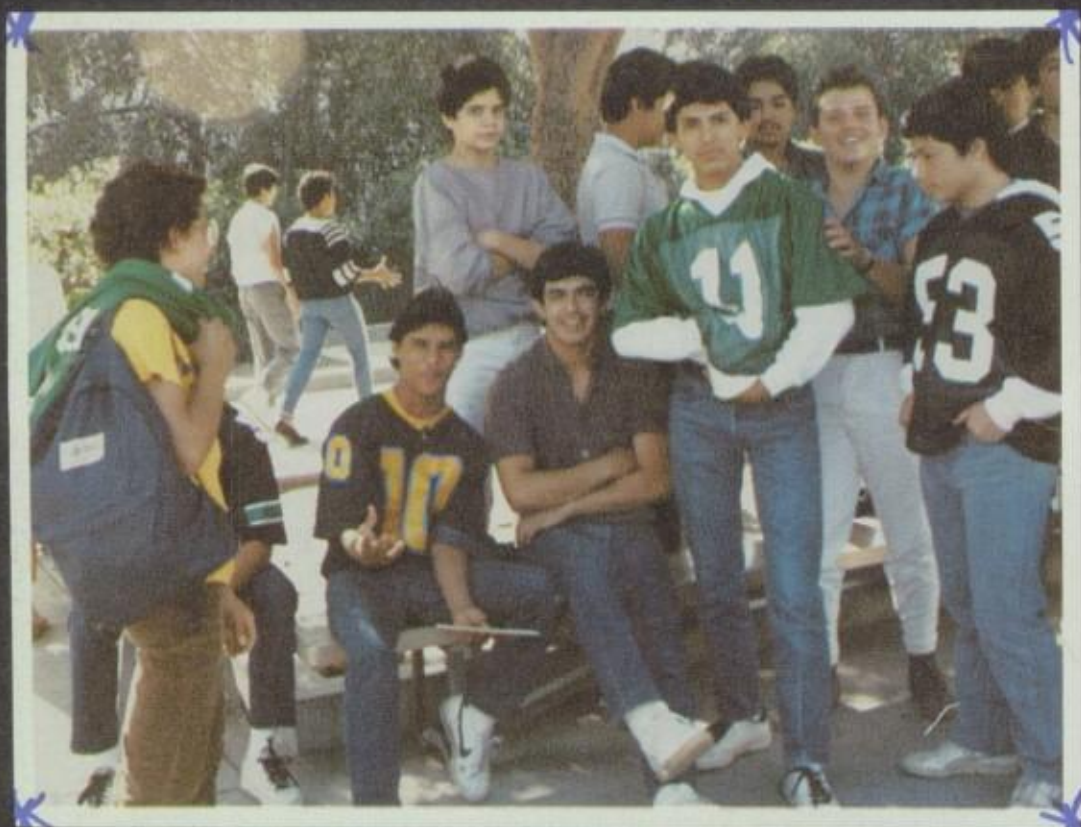

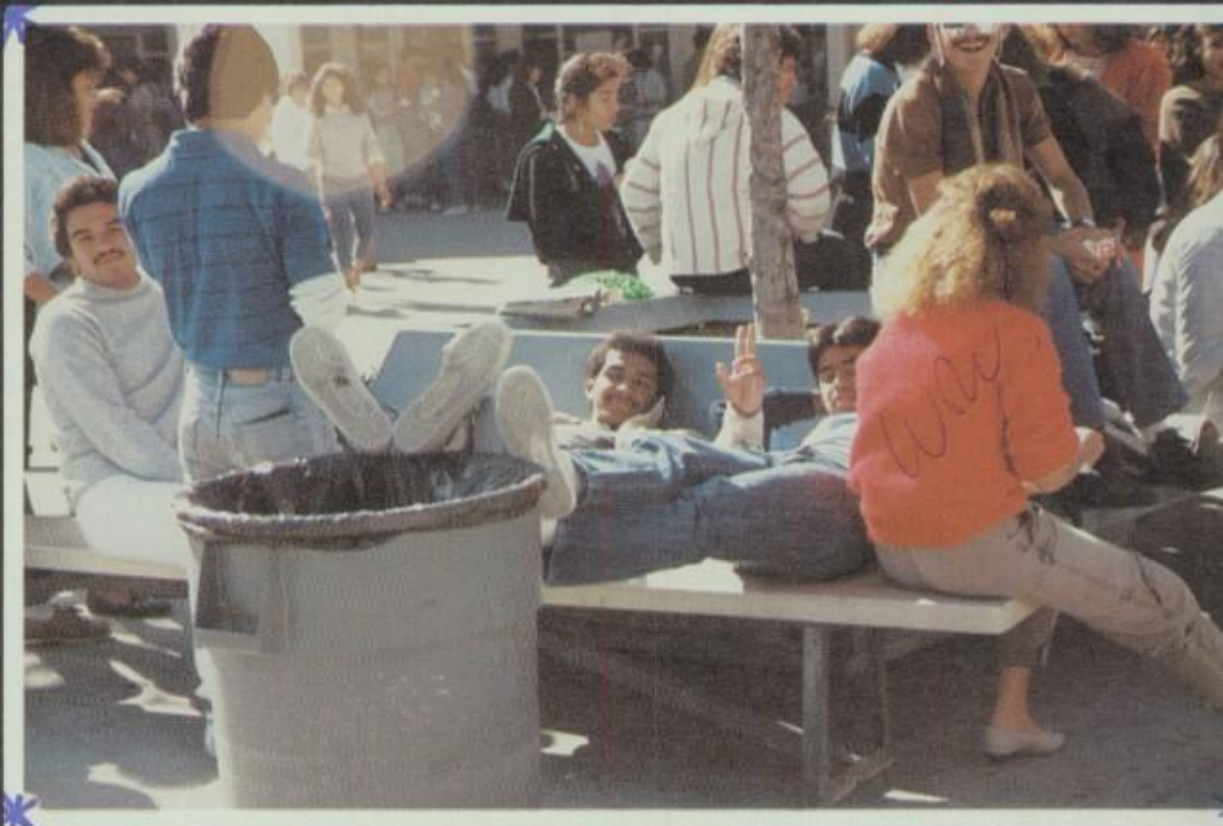

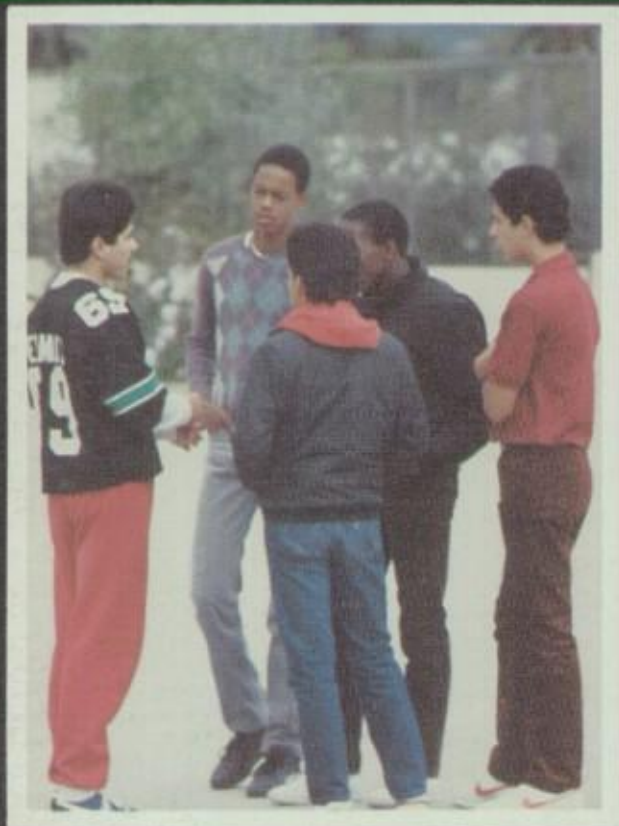

Another place where people have fun is in the performing arts department. Here students can find ways to express themselves artistically. In the performing arts department students are given several choices. Some of these choices are chorus, drama, band, and dancing. All of these have something in common - if you are spirited, fun is guaranteed.

In the past, Belmont has offered a lot of fun events to it's students and continue to do so as long as there are students who feel that they can make their high school years the best years of their lives.

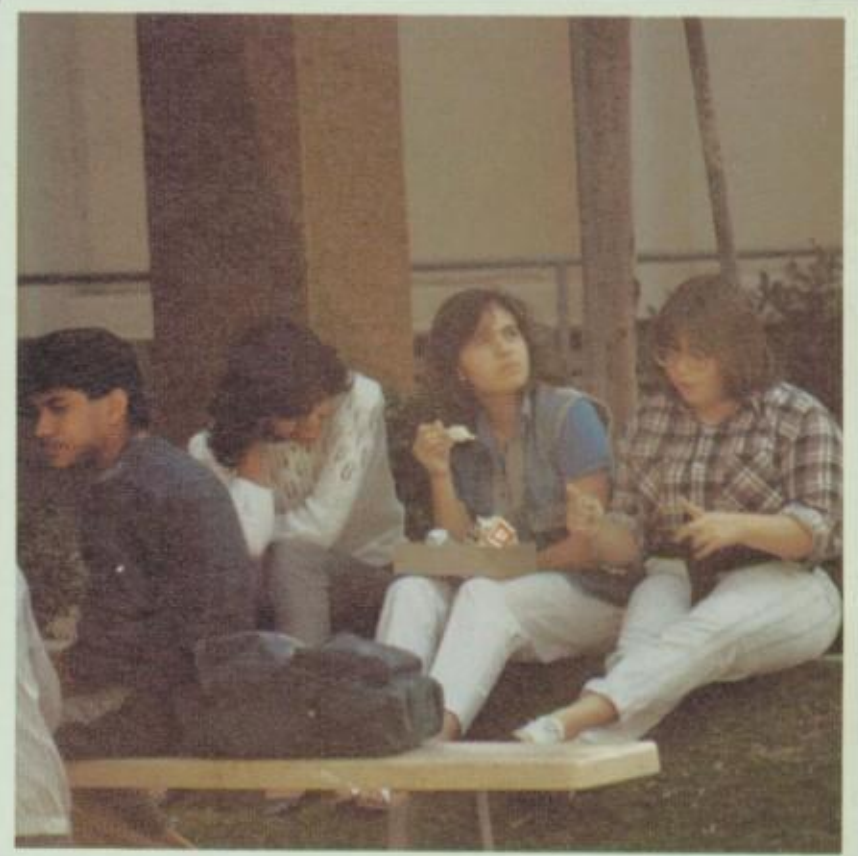

Having fun

Friendships warm

After sleeping through our English class and struggling through the chemistry experiments, wasn't it relaxing and fun just to kick back out in Belmont's backyard and talk about Saturday night and Magic Mountain, about football games and dances, about this and that and nothing. And with whom did we spend our leisure time? Our friends, of course!

At no time in our lives have we had so many opportunities to make friends as we do in high school. In some cases, lifetime relationships will evolve from these friendships. In other cases, we may go our separate ways with the memories of our friendships tucked away warmly and safely in the corners of our minds to be recalled at a chance meeting on the street or at our ten-and twenty-year reunions.

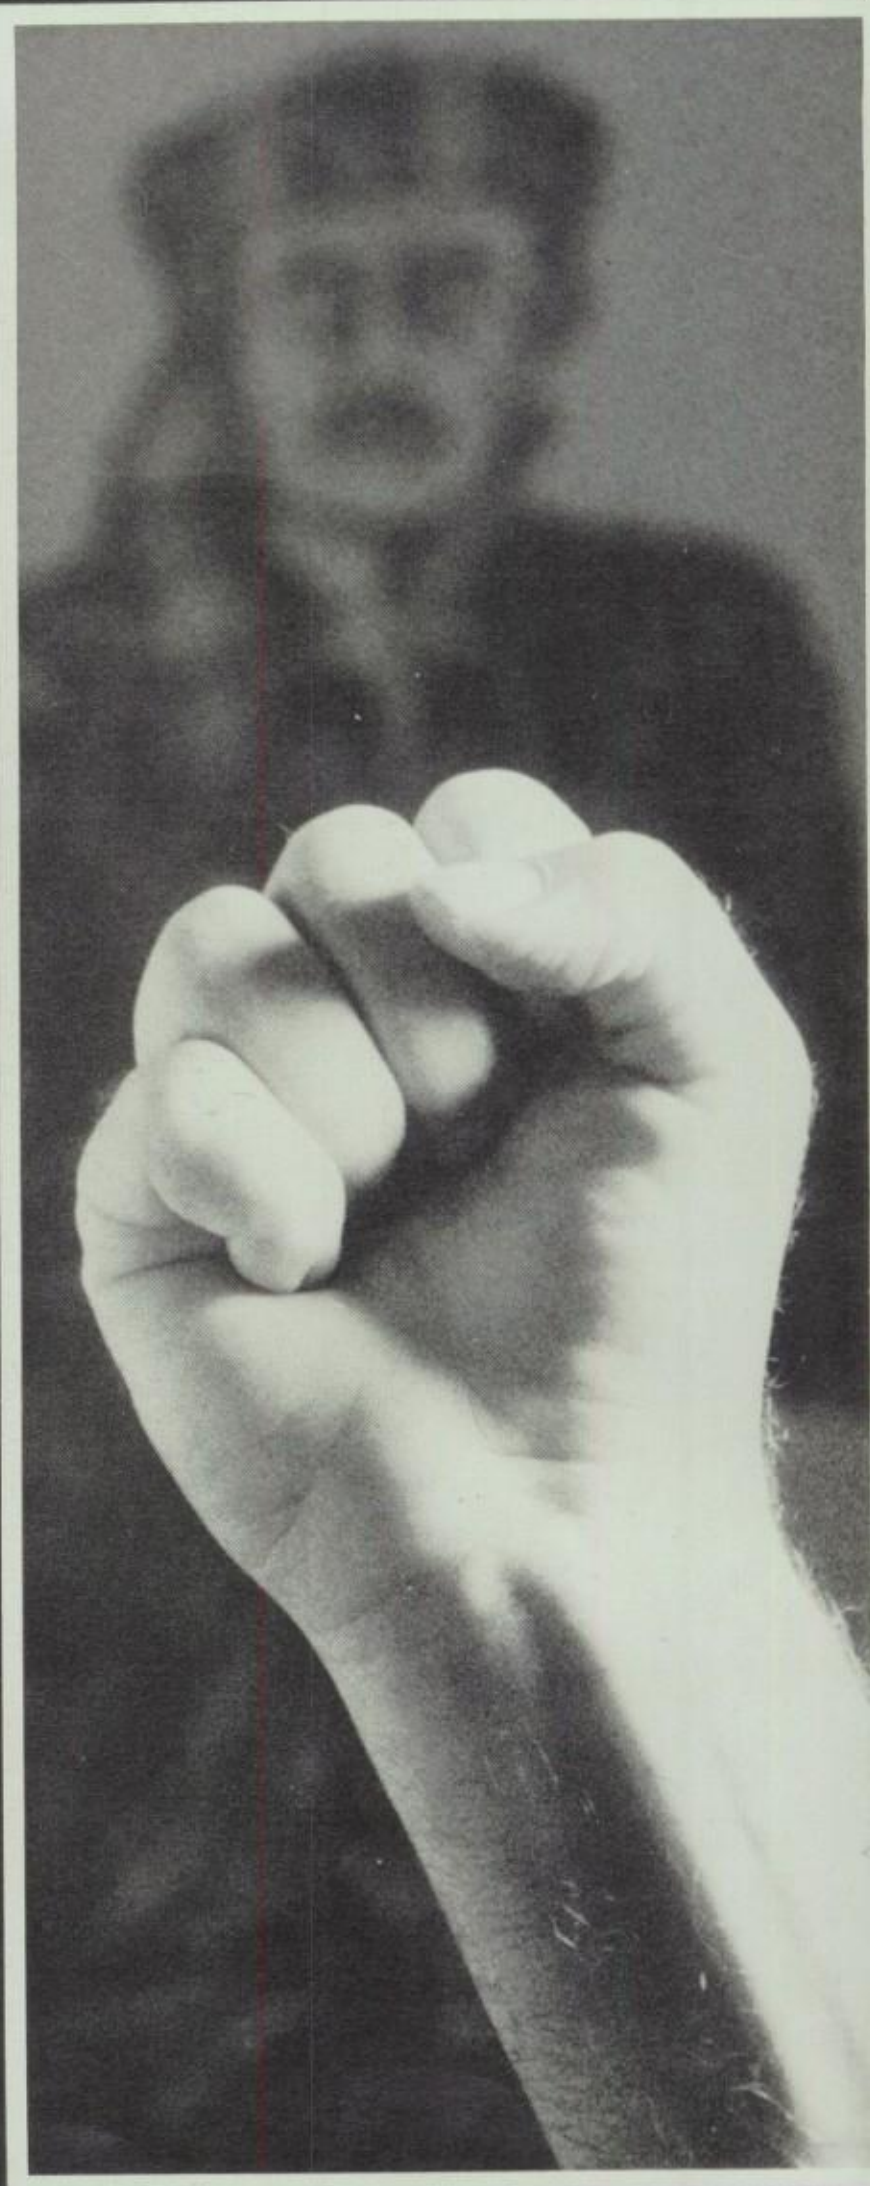

Our education is a precious and valuable possession; but on a cold, lonely, wintry night, or on a bright, sunny day, or on a day when I'm happy, or on a day when mood indigo sets in, give me a friend! With a friend, I am the richest person on earth.

Belmont's backyard.

Capturing the Magic!

I was at Tommy's immediately after a night football game when I realized that I had left my backpack crammed with books, supplies, and unfinished homework under an orange table under the North Wing. I decided to go back for it then rather than wait until Monday and take the chance that it would be gone. It was almost midnight when I climbed over the chainlink fence behind the auditorium. The nearly-full silvery moon provided barely enough light to find my way through the maze of tables under the North Wing. After I retrieved my backpack, I walked over to a bench under a nearby tree and sat down. I was captivated, almost hypnotized, by the quietude and tranquility. The stadium, which only a couple of hours earlier rocked with the sounds of the bands and cheers, was still. The "flats," where I had spent so much time with friends, were hushed. In the placid and noiseless moon glow, Belmont had a strangely attractive beauty that I had not heretofore experienced. I didn't want to leave. A little, chilly breeze blew past me, so I pulled my sweater a little more tightly around my body. As I sat there, I thought about Belmont. I thought about her rich, rich heritage; her honored, illustrious graduates; the treasured contributions made to Los Angeles, America, and the world. Deeper into the night and deeper into my mind, I'd swear that I could hear the sounds of a 1930's football game out on Montgomery Field. Walking across the flats right in front of me were laughing boys and girls in their penny loafers, 501's, and long, full skirts right out of the 50's. Hundred upon hundreds of thoughts of Belmont crossed my mind—some flashed, some lingered a while. It was as if I were seeing—really seeing—Belmont for the first time. As I was again climbing the fence, I reached for the top; and as I did so, I saw on my watch that it was 5:15 a.m. Walking down Loma toward Beverly, I thought my final thoughts of Belmont that evening: Belmont's spirit is eternal.

Just watch us now!

Well, Class of '86, we have succeeded in turning the spotlight on us as a class rather than on a few prima donnas. Our class consists of hard-working individuals who know that there is more to life than just paying taxes and watching Johnny Carson. I have been greatly motivated by the expressions of optimism as I walk through the flats. We worked together in senior activities not on the basis of the languages but rather on the quality of our characters. Our quality has not yet reached its zenith. As I sit quietly alone, my eyes open wide with gleam, and my heart beats with awe as I imagine what can be produced by our innovative class.

Thank you, Centurions, for helping me grow. Enjoy your lives and ignore the limits of expectation. And remember, "Too little a dream is beneath the stars."

Rudy Anthony Gamboa
A Track President

The time has passed, the years of high school are gone, but within us there will always be the satisfaction of all our accomplishments. The bad times and the good times will be forever carved in our hearts; and now that we have completed our first step, let us carry on and continue through the obstacle course called life. Don't let any barriers get in our way. We will keep taking our steps until we reach our goal.

Sincerely,

Arturo Garcia, B Track President

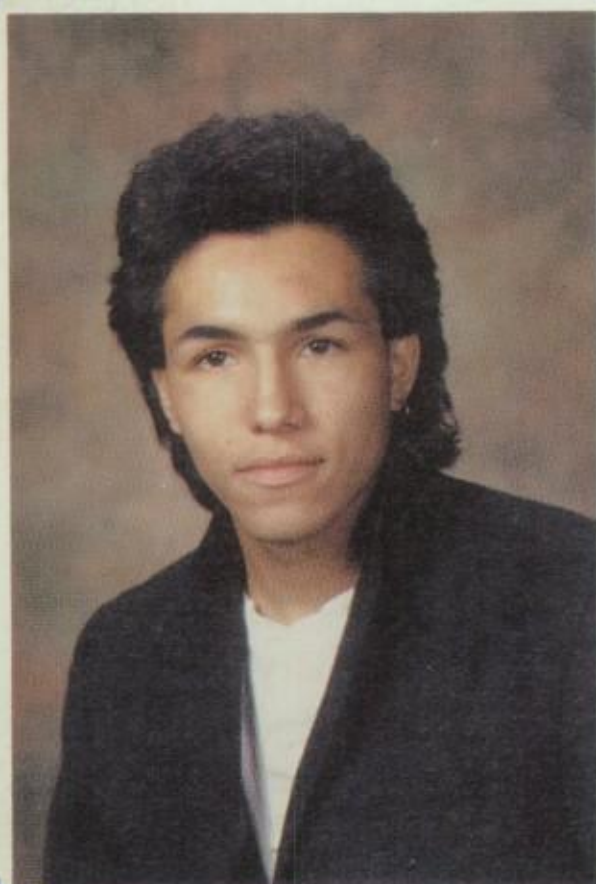

My experience as the C Track Senior Class president has been unique! I have really enjoyed the last four years, and I thank all of you for making it special. I hope that we can all cherish our memories and love forever. I wish all of you the best, and I wish you success in everything you do. Hopefully we will all be successful and proudly say, "I graduated from Belmont!" I thank all the faculty members for preparing us for our future. I want to also thank all my friends for making my studies fun.

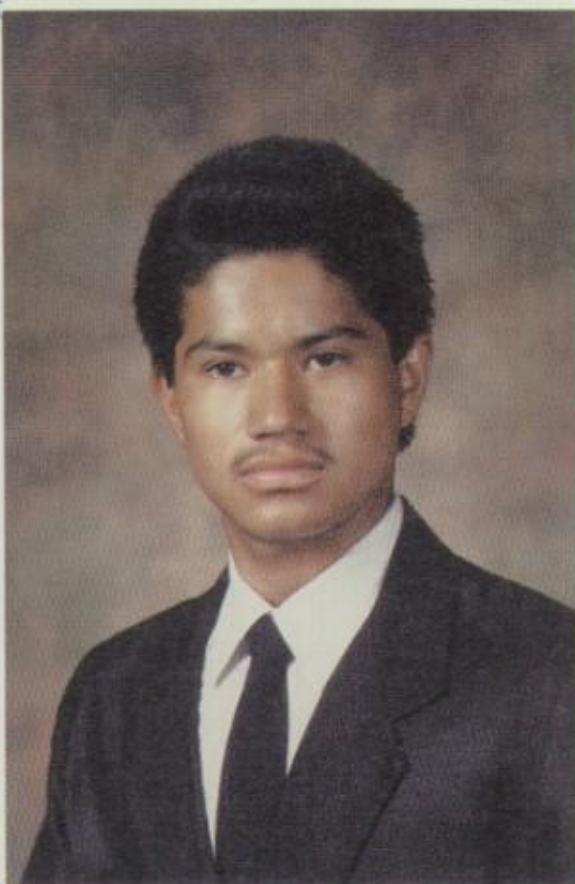

Love always,

Capturing the Magic!

After four years of toil and sweat, that golden moment in June finally arrived; and it was time to say, "till we meet again." Looking back, we could still see ourselves laughing and crying through the good moments and bad. We remembered the last few moments of the homecoming game as we waited for the gun to signify our victory! And who can forget the agonizing hours we put into completing college applications. Prom Night was a special night with THAT person, our last formal party together. Grad Nite was a chance to enjoy the comraderie of the class and party at Disneyland.

And then, the final moment — graduation! With our diplomas, a few select friends, and thousands of memories we said our last goodbyes to Belmont. Graduation — the proudest moment of all!

By Edmond Sam Lee

The proudest moment!

Memories last forever!!!

On a romantically rainy night, the Centurions gathered in the Britannia Room of the Queen Mary for their prom, which will be remembered for a long, long, time. It was that kind of prom! The good food, the excellent band and D.J., and the always-ready-for-a-party revelers made it a special evening!

Gathering with friends, talking, laughing and dancing till these young men and ladies could no longer take another step. But as the night wore on, everyone still glowed as when they first stepped in.

The highlight of the night was the crowning of the court. The handsome men in their tuxedos and the ladies in their elegant dresses combined to make this visually an absolutely stunning court.

Congratulations to the Royal court, King Gustavo Rodas, Queen Laura Rivera, Princesses Lori Fredeluces, Candy Aleman, Ethel Valle, and Caridad Hernandez, Princes Manuel Armas, Juan Carlos Cardenas, Tony Landeverde, and Carlos Pena.

*Capturing

Presenting the 1986

It was another enchanting evening at Belmont's Montgomery Field as the King and Queen led the way in the royal procession followed by their princes and princesses.

The presentation of the 1986 Homecoming Court was an awaited event. The royal subjects were anxious to find out who their King and Queen were to be; and, as it turns out, they were very happy with the results.

One of the exciting events of the evening was the Homecoming Football game between the Belmont Sentinels and the Eagle Rock Eagles. The Sentinels defeated the Eagles with a demolishing score of 44 to 7. The victory set the spirited mood throughout the night, and this year's Homecoming proved to be a joyous occasion.

The Mayor's corporate challenge for youth.

Outstanding is the word to describe what the Belmont faculty and students thought of the Mayor's Corporate Challenge for Youth assembly. Each student in attendance cooperated in every way possible. Upon Mr. Howard's introduction, the Belmont Student Body demonstrated their appreciation for his efforts as principal by giving him a standing ovation.

Among the guest speakers was Mr. Iria Distinfield who explained the purpose of the Mayor's Corporate Challenge for Youth (MCCY). MCCY is organized as a funding agency to entice important educational programs in Los Angeles. It also provides for today's youth positive role models.

Mayor Tom Bradley of Los Angeles elaborated the essential fact of positive, role models who would serve as inspirations to the young individuals' developing consciousness. Mayor Bradley also stated that there are people in this community who care about us and believe we can accomplish our goals but we have to start by believing in ourselves.

Everyone in the auditorium was mesmerized by the assembly's most keynote speaker, Henry Cisneros, the 38 year old mayor of San Antonio, Texas. Mayor Cisneros emphasized that we can be anything that we want to be. Nothing in the world could prevent us from doing what we want. "The limits set by established interests are no longer setting rules", he continued. He concluded his speech with a quotation from Robert Frost's poem, "Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening" — "All of us have real obligations and responsibilities and miles to go before we sleep."

The MCCY assembly was the talk of the day and the highlight of the semester. The speakers contributed many important facts of life and lecturing us on those little things only few of us knew. It had been an assembly which gave the students a better view of life.

Highlights of the Year

This year's activities really captivated the spirit of Belmont High. With all the events throughout each semester there was no time to eat a snack or take that break between classes to study. The large crowd during dances and special activities out on the flats, showed the enthusiasm of the student body.

Many of our students participated in events on campus and outside of school. A large amount of the Belmont High Student Body was a part of the Big Sweep to clean up our neighboring streets and it proved to be quite a success. On the other hand, student groups such as International Dance and American Pop enriched the cultural scene. But in a club or not, a majority of our spirited individual students took part in this year's events. Many were in the contest for Best Legs on Hawaiian Day, Rent-a-Senior Auction and of course the whole student body at all of the assemblies. With all the participation and fun that everyone has had, it makes it possible to plan more activities and dances for the upcoming school years in order to enjoy and show the positive tone here at Belmont High School.

Belmont students took action by working and by serving the community at the Annual Chinatown Carnival, which is sponsored by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce. Students from Belmont have for years been the mainstay of the games and concessions.

The carnival usually runs for three days and nights, but the rain came on Friday and closed the carnival for that day. Saturday and Sunday had alternating periods of sun and rain, but, what the heck! What can be more fun than spending a rainy weekend of laughter, excitement and water, and many games from which to choose.

It takes Two!

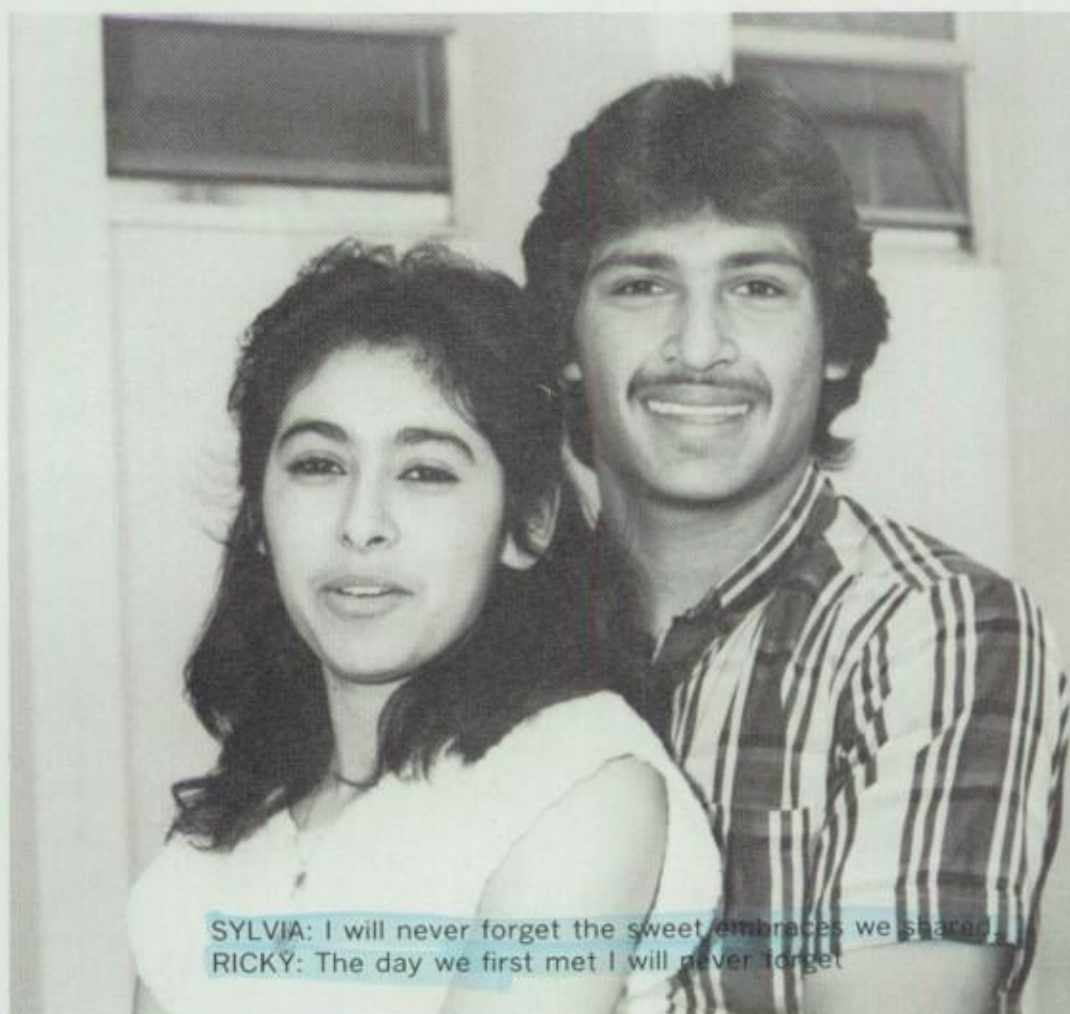

HUONG: You are my dream, my reality, and my life. You are everything I ever wished for. Let us be together forever. I love you.
PAUL: You're my one and only, precious and irreplaceable. I love you always and I always will. Forever we'll be together.

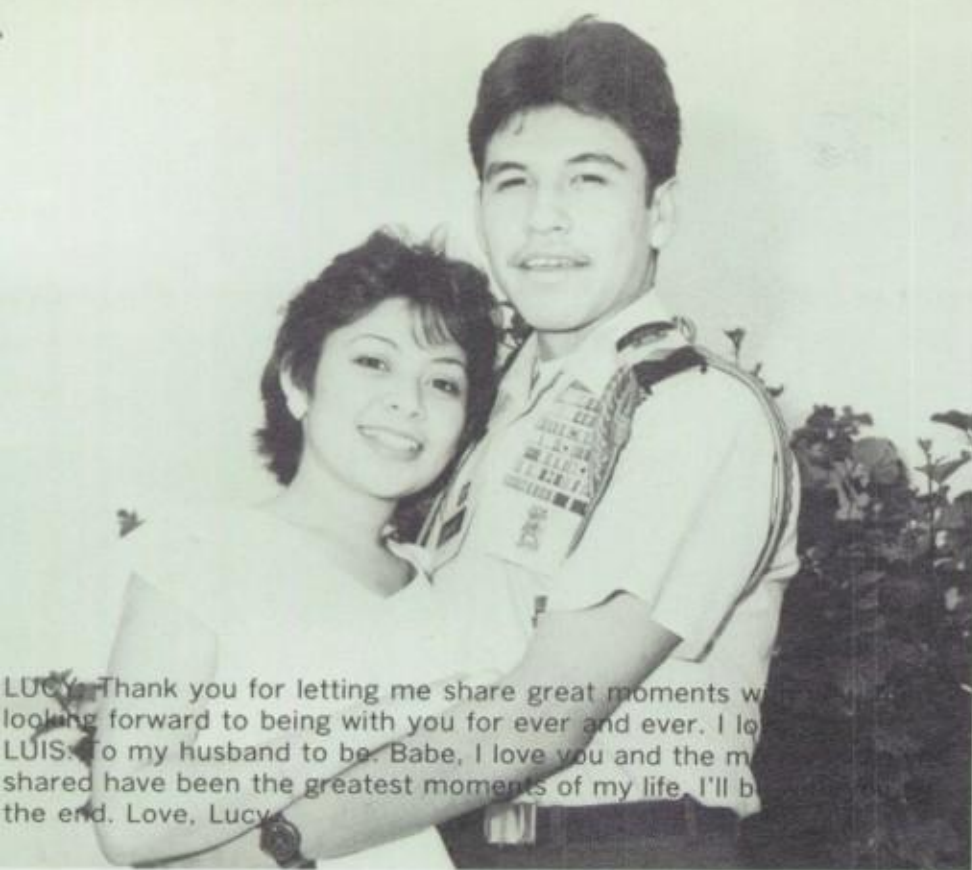

DAISY: Popy lloly teews m ruos teg reve tonod.
HUGO: Yad ureve uppah yrev em sekam taht, tacyssup elbanol ymot.

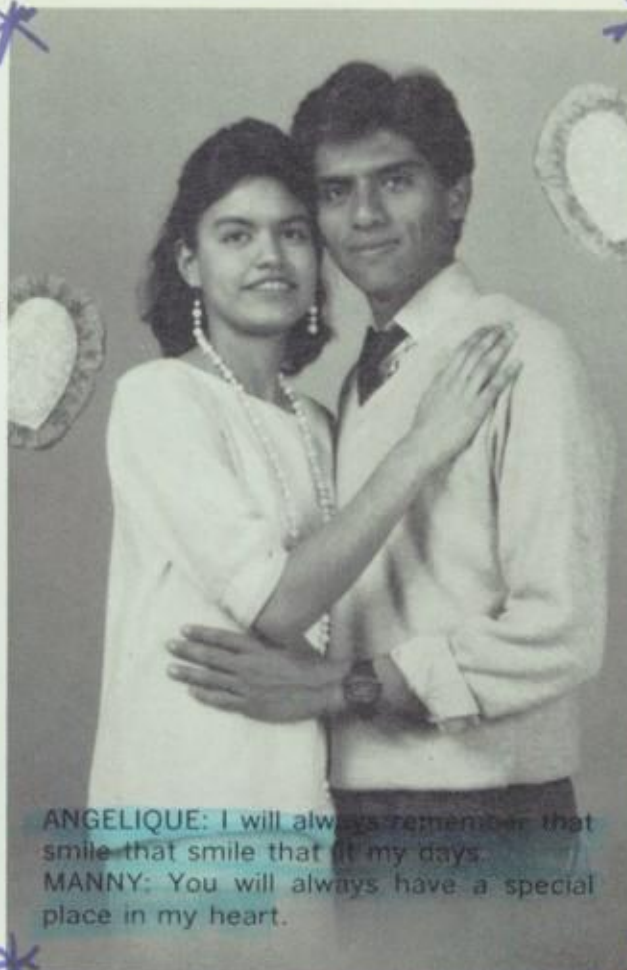

CLAUDIA: You have my end.
ANDY: All my love for y love you Andy!!!

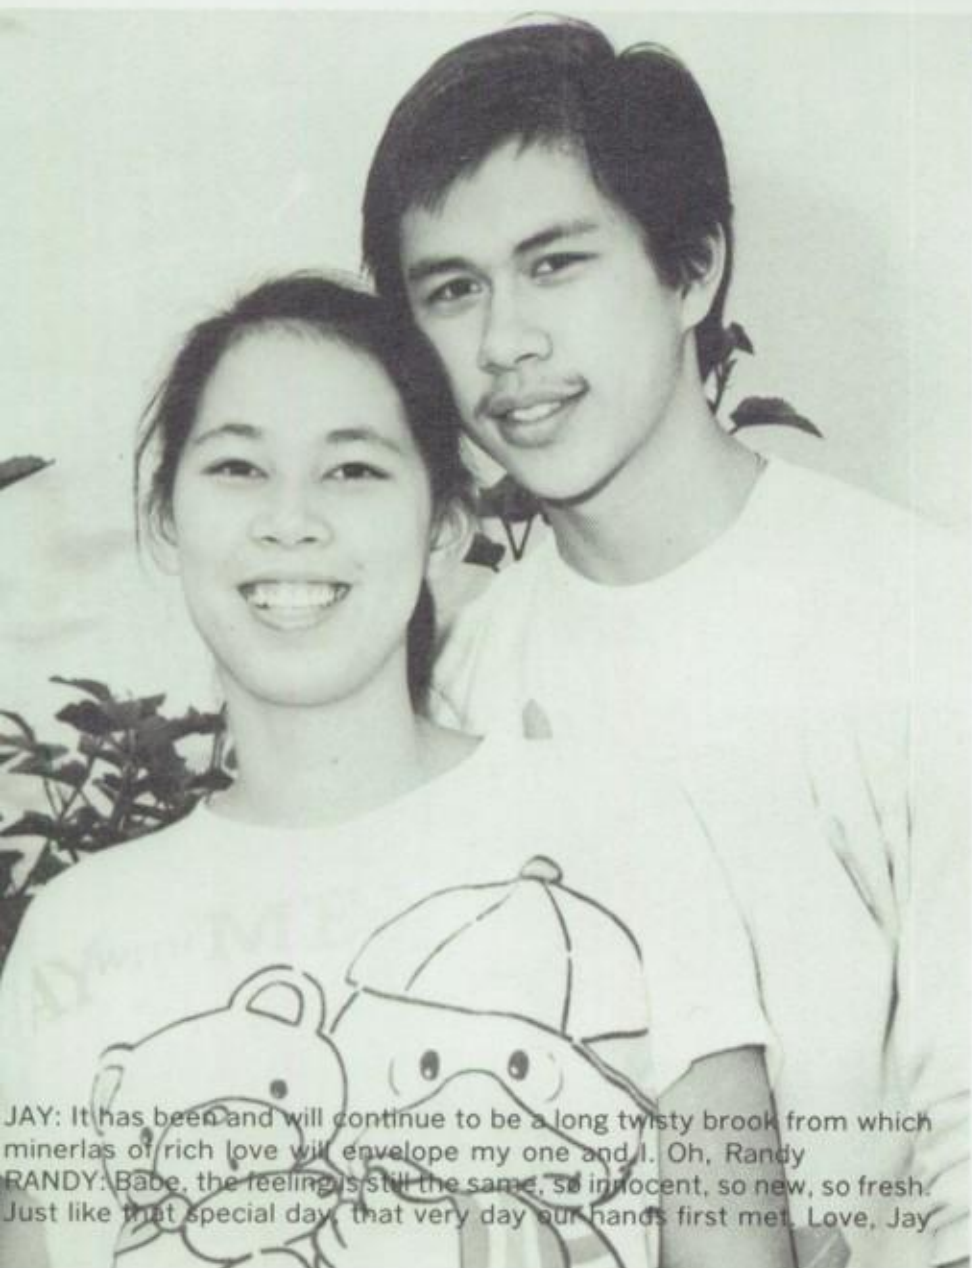

SYLVIA: I will never forget the sweet embraces we shared.
RICKY: The day we first met I will never forget

LUCY: Thank you for letting me share great moments with you, looking forward to being with you for ever and ever. I love you.
 LUIS: To my husband to be. Babe, I love you and the moments we have shared have been the greatest moments of my life. I'll be with you to the end. Love, Lucy.

ANGELIQUE: I will always remember that smile that smile that lit my days.
 MANNY: You will always have a special place in my heart.

JAY: It has been and will continue to be a long twisty brook from which minierlas of rich love will envelope my one and I. Oh, Randy RANDY: Babe, the feeling is still the same, so innocent, so new, so fresh. Just like that special day, that very day our hands first met. Love, Jay.

A couple is two people that can share both the good times and the bad times.

They might have first met eyes across a crowded dance floor, or bumped into each other in the lunch line, but once their eyes met they both knew that was the day they had found someone special. A glance at each other at first then a Hi or Hello was enough to be followed by a conversation. As time proceeds, the feelings grow and one day, he or she might come up to you and say how they feel. You'll rejoice at the words "I Love You," specially from someone you love too. If that day comes when you're upset just remember all the great moments you've shared.

There are many couples at Belmont H.S. who have found that special person and are planning marriage. To all of you that have found your love, congratulations and be sure to treasure that person. And to those who haven't don't despair there is someone out there looking for you too.

Everyone needs friends, to ease the down moods and take your worries away. No matter what the extent, you can call on them any time of day. Thankyou all for being that kind of friend; so true.

All seasons and for no reasons our friendship exists. Because it survived thru colds and boys, something that precious can't be destroyed.

We started out as The Big Top Girls and now we are the Young Ladies.

Dearest Jackie,
 Well let me tell you I'm really glad that we've become friends this yr. You're a real sweet person & a great pitcher. Best of luck in your future & remember
 I'm always. And hey
 keep in touch. Love,

Jackie is missing HERE *

We started as strangers and now our friendship has grown through the years. Hope we can always stay like sisters.

Belmont is a place where one is sure to find a friend. At Belmont one is almost never alone, because the members of the Belmont family will always go out of their way to prevent that from happening. One can surely say that the favorite pastime of the sentinels is making friends.

No matter where you go; under the umbrellas, next to the auditorium, under a tree, or even out in a camping ground, you are sure to find a friend. Just look around for that sentinel.

Belmont's fashions speak body language.

Just like the students of any other high school in America, Sentinels were subject to the whims and dictates of the fashion world — and it was all there from the punkers to the preppy, from classic 501's to cropped pants. By far the choice of most Belmonsters was the traditional American middle-of-the-road fashions such as levis, uncluttered shirts and blouses, T-shirts, and knit shirts. Pictured are Claudia Leal, looking sophisticated in a complete outfit that includes a blazer and skirt and finished off with laced stockings and boots. Carlos Pena is the consummate jock in his levis, letterman jacket and tennis shoes while Marina Ayala is completely refreshing in her summer dress. Raul Barrera wears the classic 501's with the ever-popular senior sweatshirt (notice his rat tail). Enrique Gonzalez chose his outfit to compliment his spiked hair, and Cathy Echeverria looks sporty and spunky in her cropped pants and oversize top. She is also wearing the oh! so popular Reeboks. Tony Landaverde, a true fashion plate, displays a very trendy look. Marichel Gomez is completely comfortable in her new wave look, and Oscar Orozco shows why he was considered the dictionary definition of the preppy look. Gigi Bishara completes the scene with her disco outfit.

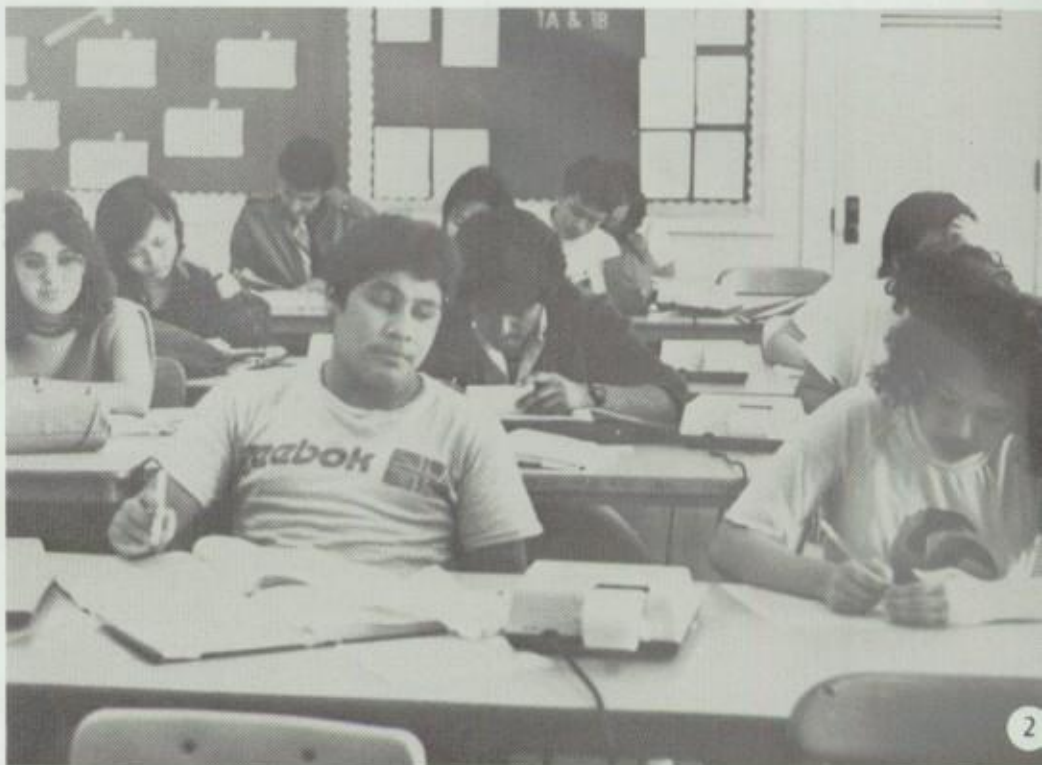

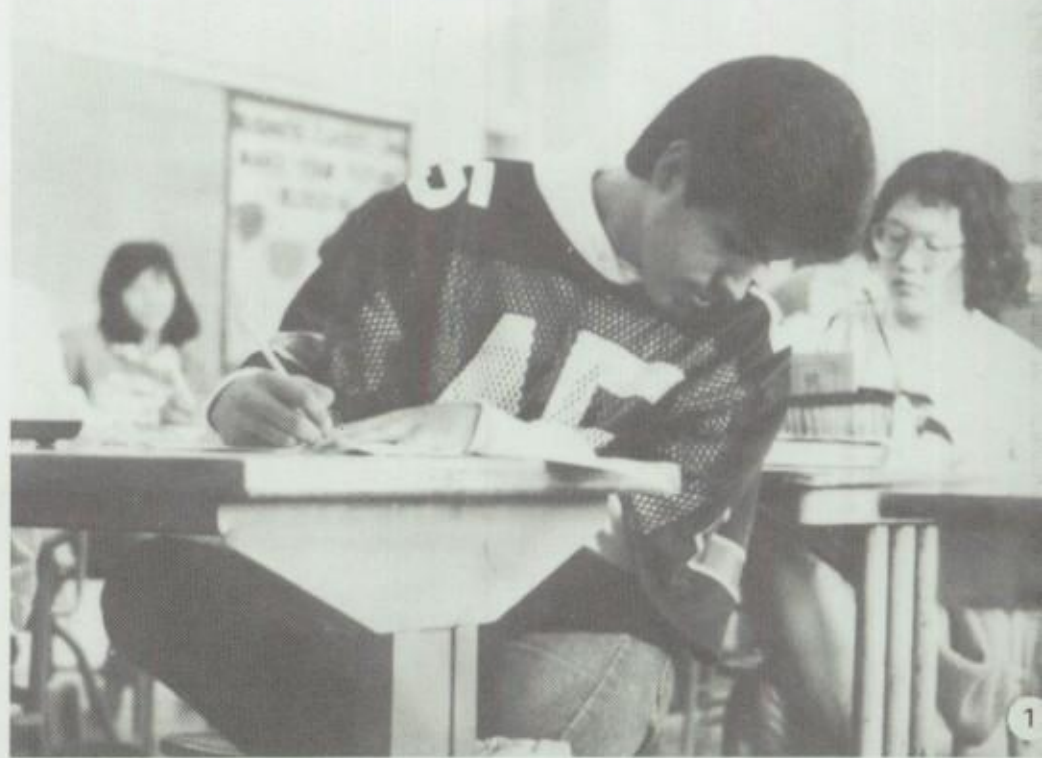

To Cheat Or Not To Cheat... THAT Is The Answer!!

Have you ever had one of those days? When you KNEW there was going to be a test the following day, only you figured, "Heck, it'll be so easy, I'll breeze right through!" or "I'll get to studying sooner or later"-but in the end, you never do!?

Then comes the moment when you start sweating bullets and the worry warts come popping out! Yes, it's test time!!! You turn to your neighbor to the right of you, "Did you study?" and soon you realize you're talking to the student who's got such a photographic mind he could tell you how many zits you've gained throughout the semester! Then you turn to the person to the left of you — relief rushes through you as you see that student who can't even spell his name, let alone study!

However, this relief is not enough for you, you still want to pass this test! What to do?!? Go paranoid?! Lose your sanity? NO!!! When all else fails ...

Dear Jaciel
 I just want to say thanks for all the great memories. I will always remember all the great things we did together in softball. You're a great pitcher and person. I am glad I met you. You made softball fun for me. Always take care of yourself and the best of luck always. I'll miss you.
 Bye your friend

1. The Heart and "Sole" of Cheating

A position which is casual enough and pretty much non-suspecting. Just make sure your legs don't fall asleep!

2. The Urge-

Have you ever had the urge to cheat? It's very easy, once you get the hang of it. Just be casual about it and ever-so-slowly lean back and check out the paper next to you. These urges do come and they do go, but never for good.

3. Making A Pass-

You've heard of making a pass to a girl ... Well, here's one, making a pass while cheating. It's sneaky enough, and it's simple enough at the same time, but at least in this kind of pass, you DO get something out of it!!!

4. "Close" Encounters-

Looking up and down can create your eyes to go crazy, but, it worth it! While the teacher passes by just a quick "close" of the legs will be one "encounter" the teacher will never notice!

5. "Chairing" The Answers-

Hey! That's what chairs are for! Always there when you need them ... ready, willing, and able. Just slip your little answer sheet there and you're all set! Just be sure you're not sitting in the very first chair or you won't be able to "chair" answers with anyone!

6. The Wounded Cheater-

Who would suspect a wounded sole? Or someone who was considerate enough to donate blood? A band "aid" will always come to the rescue!

Take the money and run

When Ms. Barbara Fiege throws a party, she really throws a party! She was in charge of the first-ever Jog-a-thon that was so much fun that it could only be called a party — in spite of the 91° temperature and smoggy, smoggy, air!

Students and teachers were encouraged to find sponsors who would contribute a voluntary sum of money for each lap that the student or teacher ran. The range of pledges was from 10¢ to $10.00 per lap! The participants — over 400 students and 70 teachers — really hustled! Over $26,000.00 was pledged for the 42,000 plus laps that were ran!

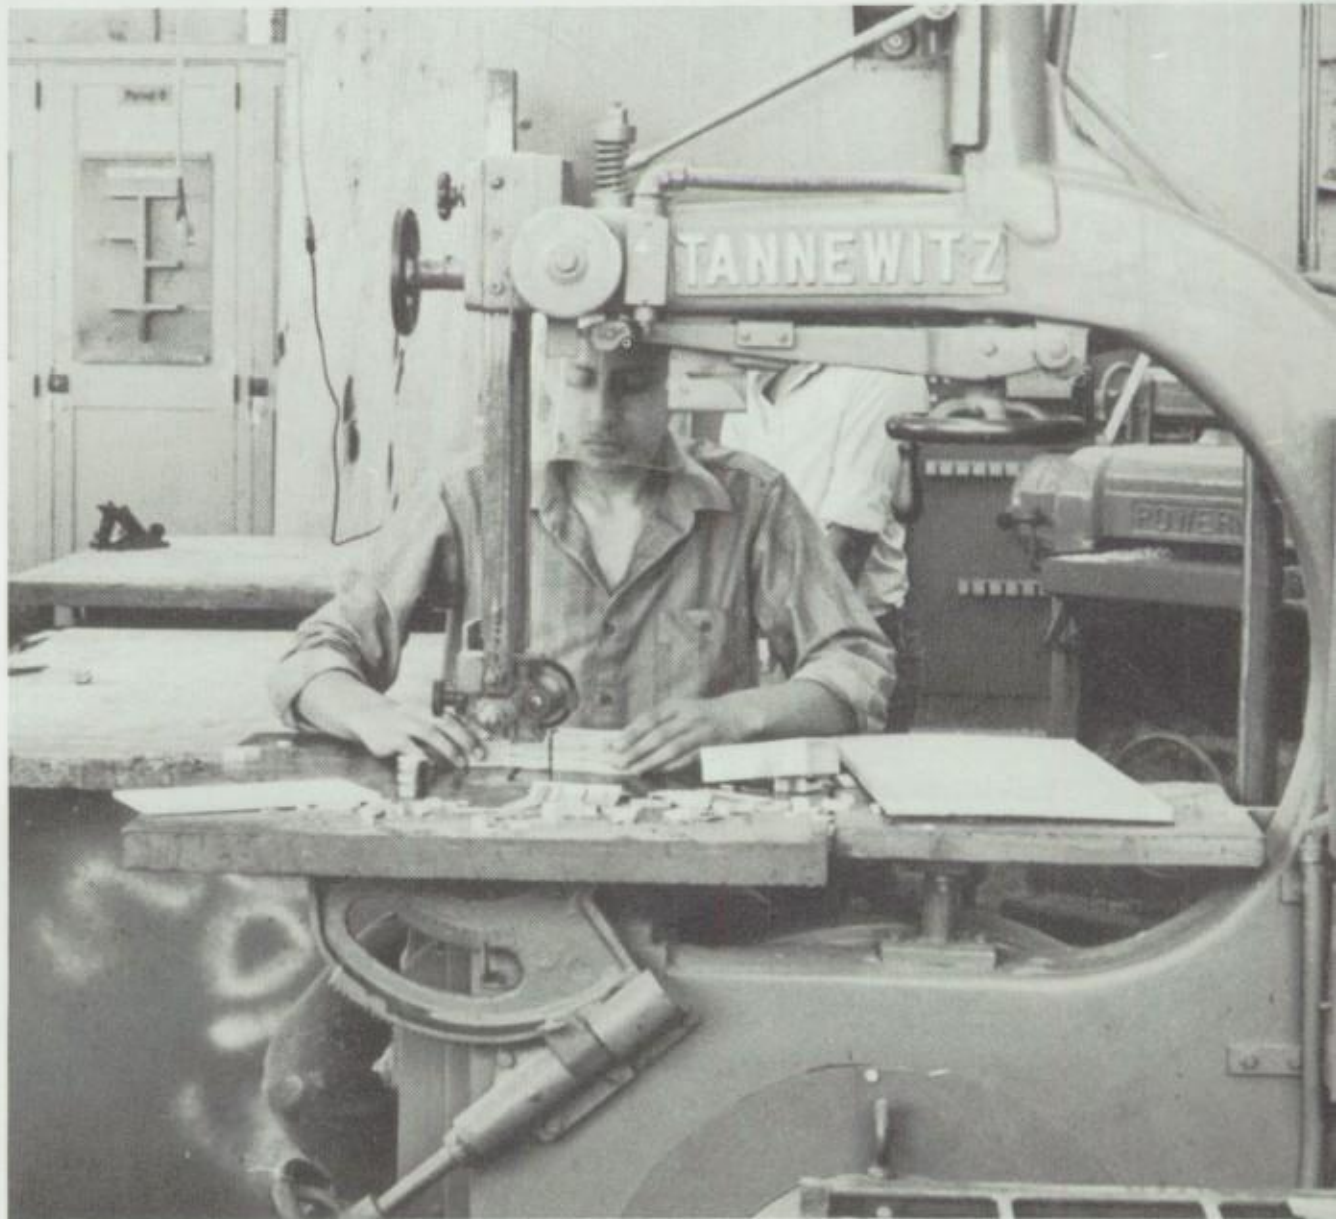

One of the highlights of the Jog-a-thon was the challenge race between Ms. Fiege and Principal John Howard. Much to everyone's surprise, Mr. Howard won the race! Another highlight was Tefere Gebre's amazing 42 laps, which translates into ten and one half miles and Georgia McLeans 28 laps.

Hopefully next year, even more people will participate in this fun-filled event.

A time to create

Creativity is something expressed by many students in the forms of art, music, cooking, and woodwork. Some students enjoy drawing and painting, activities in which they can express their artistic talents. Other students like working with their hands, to create forms and structures. Photography is also a creative skill that is available at our school that provides the students the opportunity to capture nature at its best and memories of their own on film. The desire to work, create and build moved these students to take these classes offered here at Belmont. Every student has a chance to create their ideas in the arts.

Belmont's best honored monthly

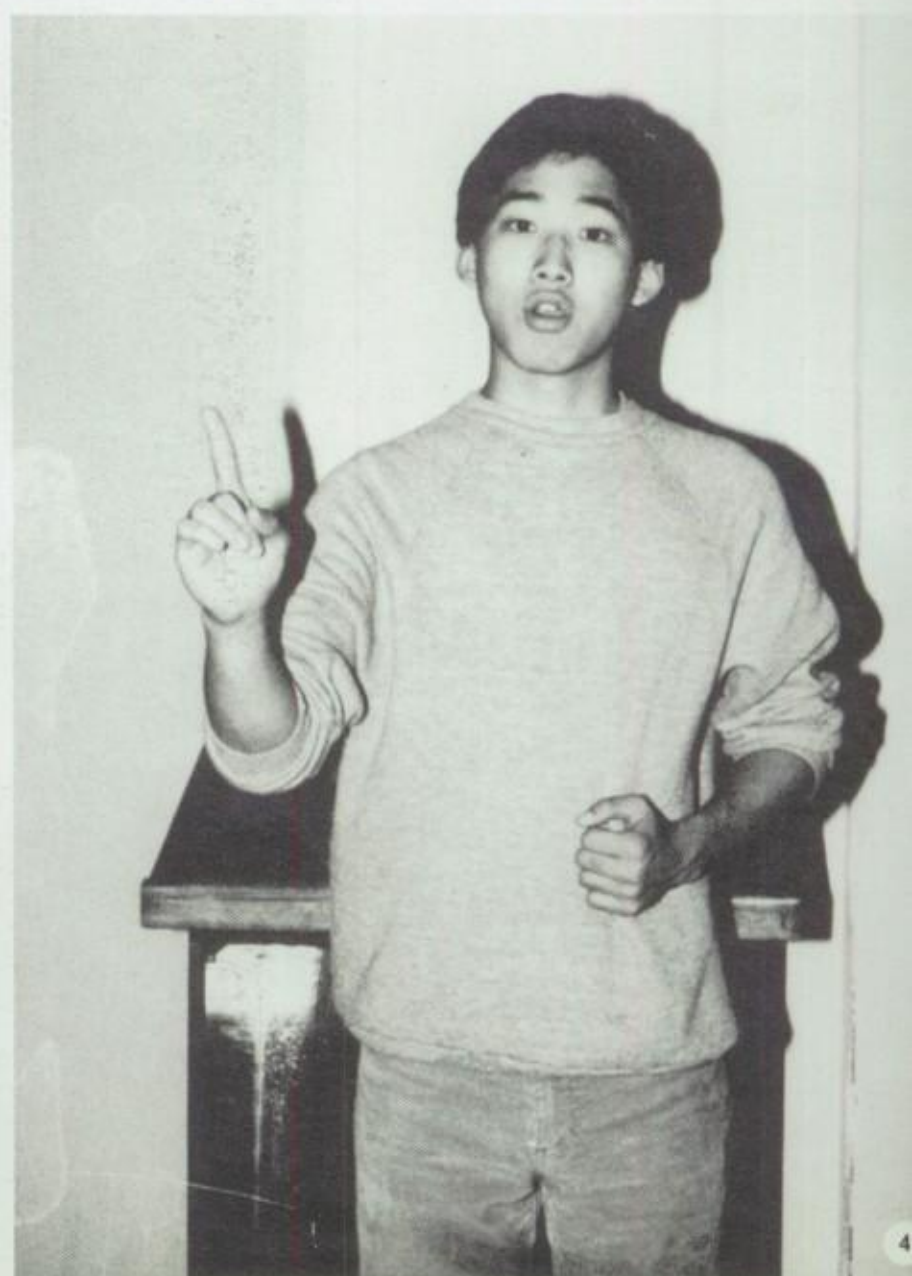

The Students of the Month program at Belmont High School honors two seniors each month from October through April. The honorees are guests for lunch of the Echo Park Lions Club and are awarded a college thesaurus. Mr. Tommy Koulax, of Tommy's Hamburgers, also gives the honorees a free Tommy's and a check for $25. In June, the student who is named Student of the Year receives a $150 scholarship from the Lions Club, the first runner-up wins $100, and the second runner-up wins $50.

A point system is used to insure impartiality. The objective point system allows all students to compete equally, and it encourages students to seek a balance between academic achievement and a variety of activities. Students earn points in the following categories: scholastic record, school activities, community activities, and a bonus recognizing extraordinary accomplishments.

1986 Students of the Month: Wing Yu, Alex Olvido, Francis Cunanan, Tim Sato, Cindy Dao, Francis Chan, Edmond Lee, Joanne Siu, Lan Nguyen, Evelyn Ramos, Vincent Moy, Paul Huynh, Venessa Vysosias, and Binh Nog.

J.R.O.T.C. represents

Belmont with pride

As always the Belmont R.O.T.C. is one of the best in the city. This year the unit was inspected by the U.S. Army and was designated an honor unit with distinction, the highest award a high school R.O.T.C. unit can receive.

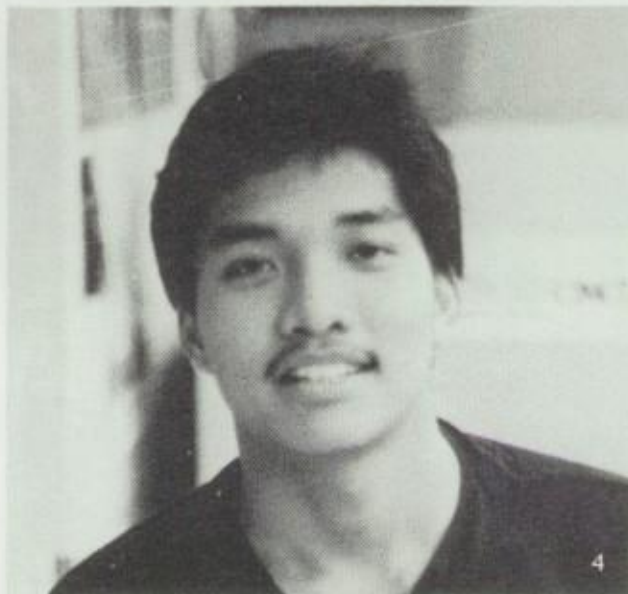

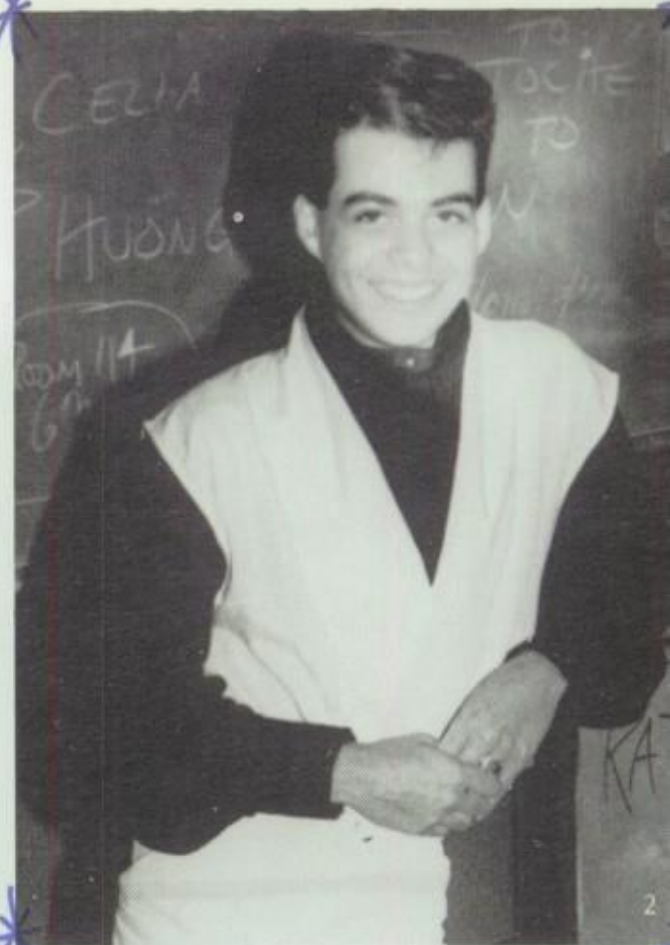

Our cadets do well in the all-City competitions. This year should be no exception, with the boys and girls Drill teams, and the Marching units, picked to be right at the top as usual.

R.O.T.C. cadets get involved in numerous activities such as: color guard at football games and assemblies, drill teams, rifle marksmanship, marching in parades, and the annual trip to Ft. Ord. in Northern California.

Unforgettable Memories

The 1985 season was a very successful one for the Band, Flag Team, Drill Team, and the Shields. Our dedication and our spirit was our key to being a good performing team. We shared many memories at games, competitions, and even at practices and performances, yet we continued strengthening our team by "reaching higher."

The memories that we had together are really unforgettable and will always remain in our hearts. Our biggest event was being finalists in the Twelfth Annual Band and Drill Team City Championship. The beginning of this year's season. Though we didn't win any of our competitions, those of us that tried hard and gave it our "all" know that we did deserve more than we received. But most of all, Mr. Feliz, our band director, is the one that truly deserves to have a real first place trophy. If it weren't for him, Belmont wouldn't have a Marching Band.

The Belmont team in the California Academic Decathlon competition had a most successful effort. The team is divided into three levels based on a student's G.P.A. Honors level requires GPA of 3.75 to 4.0; Scholastic level needs a GPA of 3.0 to 3.74; Varsity levels has a GPA of 2.0 to 2.99. Team members this year were Wing Yu and Joanne Siu on the Honors; Vanessa Vysosias and Francis Cunanan on the Scholastic; Tim Sato and Lorena Gomez on the Varsity.

Competition is in ten different events. These events are Science, Language and Literature, Math, Economics, Social Science, Fine Arts, Essay, Speeches (Prepared and Impromptu), Interview, and the Super Quiz.

The team was assisted by a group of dedicated tutors including Ali Abayachi-Math; Gene Wilkerson-Science; Steve Voisard-Economics and Speeches Lynn Browsers-

Language, Literature, and Drama; Serena Bell-Art; Gary Kelly-Research and Development Specialist.

On an individual basis Wing Yu won a silver medal in the Math competition while Tim Sato earned a silver medal in the Social Science Area. The dynamic mix of veterans and first timers produced an eleventh place finish in the overall standings which involved fifty three competitors. This was a ten position improvement over 1984.

Team trophies and plaques were awarded for the first time to teams that earned first, second, or third place finishes in a particular field. Belmont earned a second place plaque in Math and third place plaque in Social Science. Strong finishes by the team were also recorded in Science where we tied for sixth and in Fine Arts where a ninth place position was achieved.

The annual Belmont Pentathlon competition has proven to be one of the best ways in which students from different grade levels can compete against each other. Students compete in five different events: art construction, spelling, mathematics, volleyball, and the super quiz. We would like to express our deepest gratitude to the following members of the Belmont High School staff: Ms. Tomono, Ms. Suto, Mrs. Oh, Mr. Ung, Ms. Nakano, Mr. Hansen, Mr. Abayachi, Mr. Melin, and Mrs. Groat (and anyone else who we may have forgotten). A very special thanks to George Clark, a former Belmont Assistant Principal, who built and maintains the Super Quiz apparatus. Also, we especially thank the students who tried hard in making this year's Pentathlon competitive and fun! Everyone tried their darndest in each event, but when it was all over, Phase I was the winner!

We are not imitation, we are

We, the 1985-86 cheerleading squad, proved to be spirited, enthusiastic and most of all, dedicated. We started practice during summer and made time for after-school practice every day.

Getting the crowd involved is one difficult thing to do, but we did it! This year we cheered for both bees and varsity teams as well as for the basketball and volleyball teams. It has all been worth it!

Creative and unique are two words that describe this year's cheerleading squad. Special thanks to Mrs. Lilliam Krumholz for her help and support. As captain of the cheerleading squad, I would like to congratulate and give all of my love to each of the members of the squad for great performances throughout the year. Good luck to all future Belmont cheerleaders.

SPORTS

the Magic!*

City Champions again!

For the past four years the Belmont Cross Country team has dominated the city championships. I guess winning the city championships in 1982, 1983 and in 1984 was not enough for the Sentinels in 1985. Having only two returning runners in the varsity division, not to mention the lost alone of the great Roman Gomez, we were able to again win the city championship and further extend the great inheritance of Belmont's great cross country team.

Outstanding performances which were necessary in this team sport, were accomplished by Manuel Gomez, George Duran, Gebre Tefere, Sepehr Eskandari, Rene Lopez, Marcos Estrada and Sergio Sanchez.

The four year veteran Manuel Gomez, having been injured half of the season, overcame his injuries and demonstrated his talents the last five meets, by placing 2nd in the city of L.A. During his last season, he set a remarkable record that no one in the city of L.A. has ever done. He has been the only runner to have been a member of a Varsity Cross Country City Championship team - four years in a row.

George Duran having experienced three city championship titles, one in 1983-Frosh/Soph division, and two in the varsity division showed maturity and talent when we most needed it by placing 6th in city finals.

Gebre Tefere, missing last year's season, made a remarkable come-back. Winning half of the dual meets, he led the team to its 5th consecutive Northern League Championship. He also placed 5th in city finals.

Sepehr Eskandari a senior, was a member of last year's J.V. City Championship team. Being the fourth man in this years varsity team he was a big factor to our success.

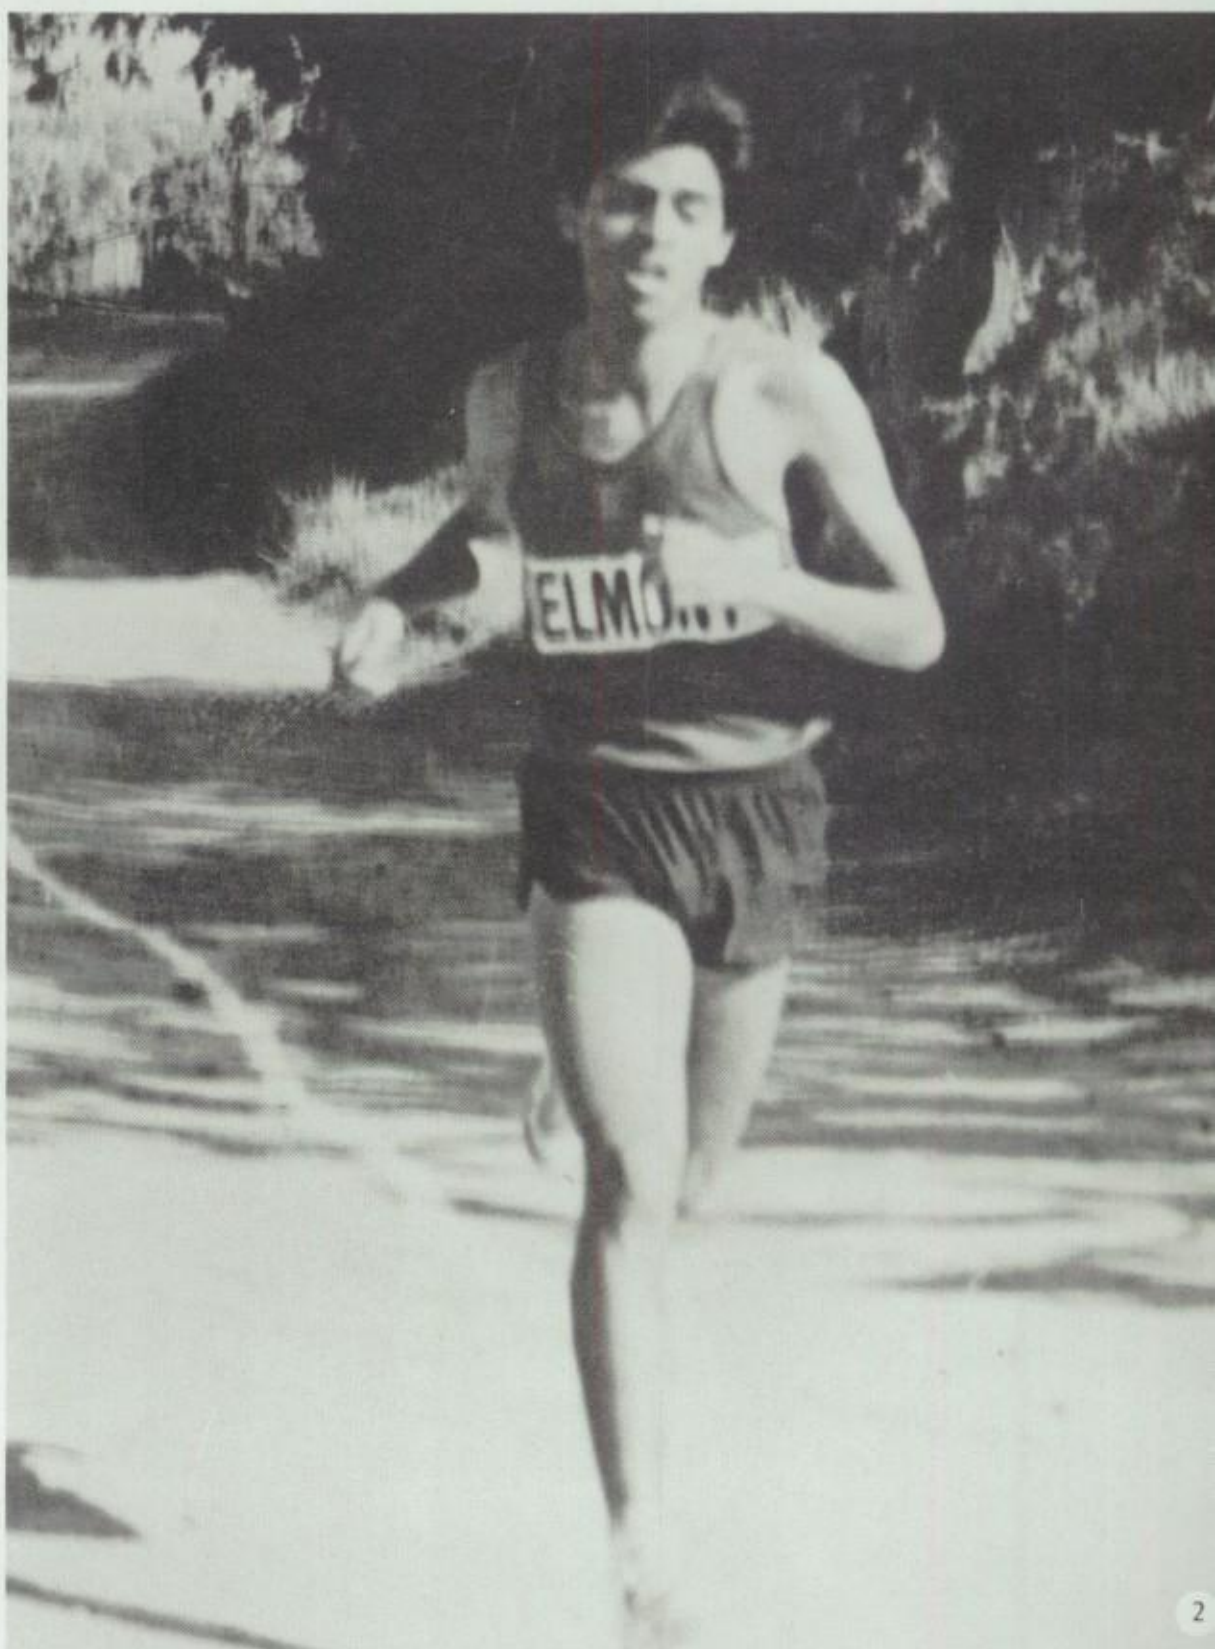

Rene Lopez, another member of last years' J.V. team contributed to our team by being there when we most needed him. He placed 34th in city finals.

Marcos Estrada, a senior, was our fifth man in the team. By him, placing 35th in city finals, our city championship was assured.

Our other member of our city championship team was Sergio Sanchez. Moving from the J.V. team up to the Varsity team, he contributed to our success.

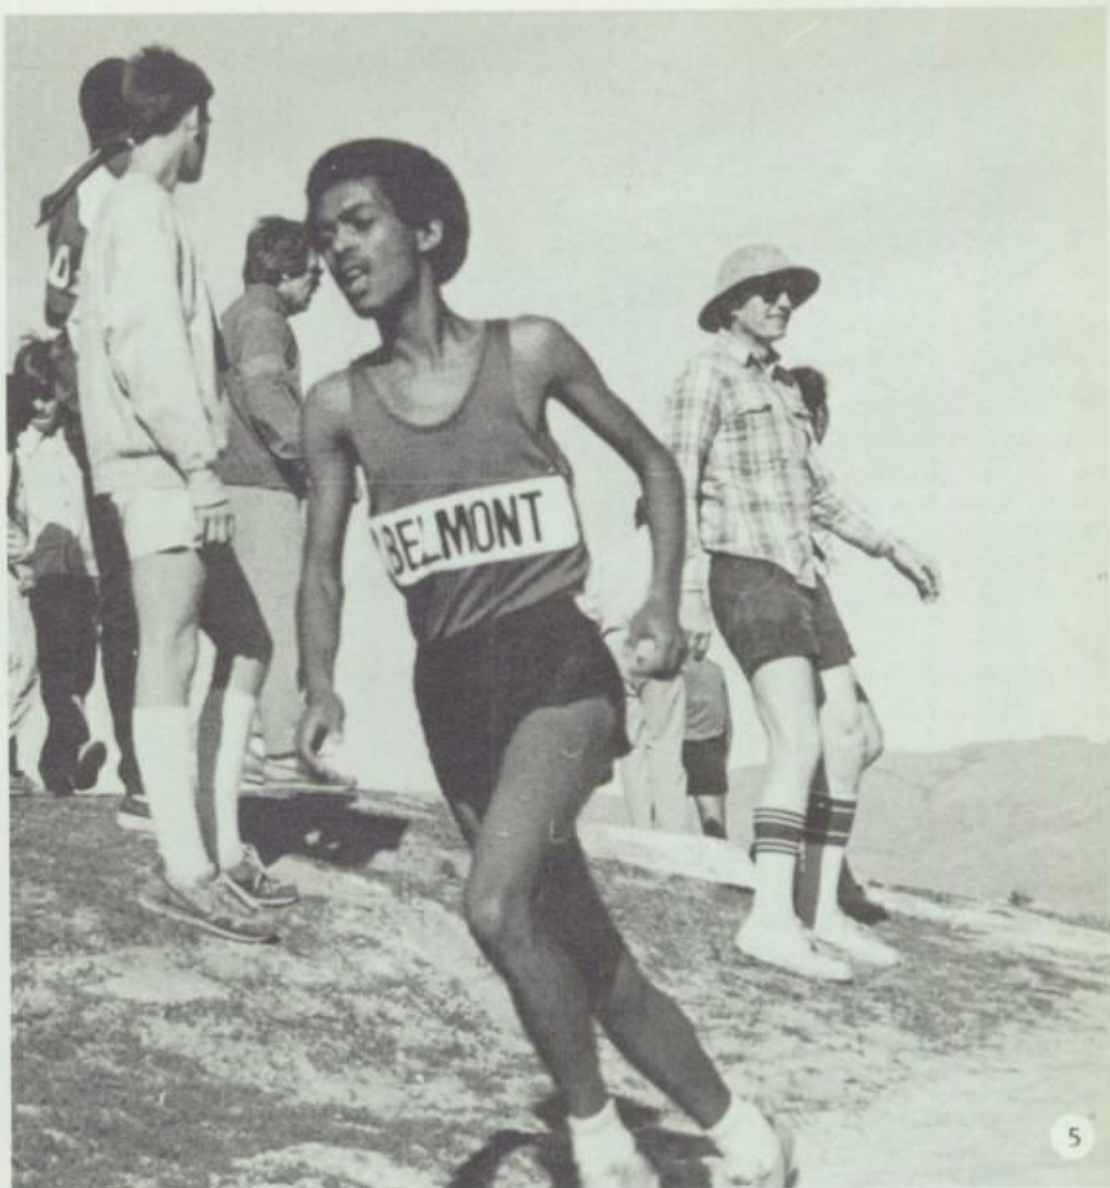

Special thanks goes to the finest coaching staff. Under the leadership of coach Gordon Weisenburger, we overcame difficulties and with his help and understanding our team became the finest team in the city of Los Angeles. Credit should also be given to coach Robin Paulsen which trained and motivated the team during early season. Without them, the team and our success would have been different. We thank you and God bless you.

League Champions!

After realizing that cross country is a team effort, our total output in the program was great. After losing many senior girls the year before, we knew that it would take total dedication, hard work, and understanding to successfully make it through the season and to achieve the goals that we had set for ourselves. And those goals were to do our best and to successfully defend our title as league champions.

Our team, led by Captains Georgia McLean and Shirley Martin, was outstanding! We had a perfect 7-0 league season. At the league finals, we took first, which qualified us for the city finals. We ran a tough race against the best that Los Angeles had to offer, and we came in fourth. We are proud of that achievement; we did our best.

Outstanding efforts and dedication were shown by all the girls on the team. The top five girls were Georgia McLean, seventh in city; Shirley Martin, fifty third; Perla Chavez, thirty third; Elizabeth Martin, twenty eighth, and Elizabeth Martin, forty second. More than one hundred girls ran in the city finals. Other members of the outstanding team were Angelique Ruelas, Claudia Leal, Angelica Ramirez, Maria Quintero, Angie Mancilla, Teri Edmonds, Ana Acevedo, Monica Ramirez, and Leticia Ayon.

On behalf of the girls' team, I would like to thank all the people who supported us and believed in us. our special thanks go to Coach Gordon Weisenburger and our head track coach, Robin Paulsen. Coach Weisenburger's love and understanding and Coach Paulsen's last-effort cheers motivated us to the highest degree! Their love and understanding will never be forgotten. We also appreciate the cheers and extra-push motivation provided by our teammates and old friends.

J.V.'s do it again!

The Belmont Junior Varsity Cross Country team began its season against Bell High at Pierce College. Because of extremely high temperatures, many of the runners were dehydrated. Nevertheless, we returned home victorious.

Coach Weisenburger cautioned us about expecting an easy league season. Many schools were looking forward to changing our unblemished record. One of our main concerns was Wilson High. They were quite a challenge, but Belmont was the stronger team, so once again we emerged victorious. We maintained our undefeated standing throughout the league season. Leading Belmont to the Northern League crown were Martin Torres, Hector Torres, Javier Fernandez, Bivaldo Saratin, and Jose Santos.

When the city semi-finals began, we were fearless and ready for any and all challengers. All schools were still trying hard to beat us. Since cream rises to the top, we remained victors! Then came the big race, the race we had been training for all year — the city final! The race would determine our future — would we remain champs or would we become chumps! Our coach had reservations about our ability to retain our city crown. He thought Bell or Garfield, our toughest competitors, would be the new champs. We kept our positive attitude in spite of the odds.

The race was on! We were off up and down the hills at Pierce College with Belmont alumni cheering us on and encouraging us to do our best. The race stayed among Belmont, Garfield, and Bell. When the race was over, it looked as if Bell High had won and were the new champs. We were wallowing in our sorrow when we heard the public address announcement that we had defeated Bell by two points! Every man on the team was exuberant and ran to the scoreboard to make sure that we were not dreaming. The Sentinels returned home victorious with the fourth consecutive Los Angeles city championship for junior varsity cross country. Next year, we will go for our fifth!

Runners survive

The Belmont cross-country team was strong in 1985. It all started when they ran against Bell H.S. and came home victorious. That day, Sentinels were running in temperatures over 100 degrees.

The team was undefeated through all the dual meets of competition. The league finals came and again Belmont became the Northern League Champions of 1985.

Banning H.S. was our rival in our prelims. Because of our hard work, Belmont came through with flying colors. The frosh-soph team was excited, and coach Weisenburger was looking forward to a victory in the city finals, which were held the following week.

The final day of competition came on Saturday, December 7, 1985; that was the day the team had to prepare for the unexpected. Saturday was the big day for Belmont. All the work the team did was for one meet, the city finals. The frosh-soph team was defeated by San Pedro H.S., the school that Belmont least expected to win. Belmont was second and Banning was third that day.

The team was led by Jorge Cabral, who finished 3rd; Felix Arevalo, another Sentinel who finished 7th; Froilan Tolentino the captain of the team 37th; Cedric DeGusman 38th; and Sergio Lopez 39th. The team was composed of Antolin Lance, Bangphraxay Bovnyadeth, Diaz Gabriel, Gonzalez Martin, Walter Hernandez, Gerardo Leon, Jose Robles, Miguel Valle, Joe Villa and Miguel Gomez.

Second in the City!

New faces succeed

At the beginning of the 1985 football season many questions aroused concern. Some of these questions dealt with the ability of the Varsity Team to match the Cinderella championship team of the '84 season. Another question dealt with the many new faces, and many people wondered if these young men could present a challenge to other teams in the Northern League.

As the pre-season play began, both the coaches and players went in with much enthusiasm and desire, however, Belmont finished their pre-season with a disappointing record of 0 wins and 4 losses.

In spite of this record, the coaches and players felt they had gained much needed experience and felt that they would be a top contender in league. This belief then became reality, as the Mighty Sentinels' crushed the opposition of the young Hollywood Shieks. After this victory, the team looked forward to their next opponent, the favored Lincoln Tigers. However, this encounter resulted in a loss of the game and a possible loss of the Northern League crown.

The loss quickly passed, as the team looked forward to the remainder of the season. But the next game against Verdugo Hills resulted in a shocking emotional loss as the Sentinels were defeated by the score of 17-16. This loss may have resulted in knocking Belmont out of their play-off hopes.

The last two games were very important to Belmont because they were against Marshall-their long time rival-and Eagle Rock-their homecoming foes. These two games were also important because if they won them, their play-off hopes would become reality.

As Belmont stepped onto Marshall's field, the intensity could be felt drifting in the air. And as the gun sounded, Belmont had dominated and defeated their rivals 24-0.

After this game came Eagle Rock and the players knew its importance. So as the lights came on and a cool mist drifted in, the setting of Belmont's field was complete. All that was needed was for the Black-clad warriors to take the field. And take the field they did by destroying Eagle Rock 44-7. And as the Black-clad and dirt-coated warriors walked off the field, their minds were now on the City Quarter Final Play-offs.

The next week was a hard grueling practice, and the coaches continued to boost the spirits of the team. Then the game came and the modern gladiators from Belmont were 100% ready to take on Venice and if needed, the world! As the game progressed, Belmont dominated with an explosive offense and a fierce defense. Unfortunately, in the end, the men in black fell by the score of 17-14 to Venice. These fine young men lost the game, but they weren't losers. These men earned the respect of all their opponents. And at that, they were able to say "We had the Pride, Desire, and the Respect."

These words are the most important words in the game. And for players and coaches to have these three qualities, they are in their own right Champions!!!

Positive

This past season for the Varsity Basketball team was a time for learning. Coach Arima had to work with guys who lacked in experience, but never in hard work. Almost all of them came up from the Bee and JV teams. John Ho was the only returning letterman.

Even with a one and nine record, many of individuals stood out during the season. Ken Johnson who averaged 16 points a game, John Ho who scored almost 11 points a game, and William Aviles who had 7 points a game took care of the offensive end of the court. Defensewise, Corey Paul made his presence felt as a rebounder while Daniel Martin made himself known as a defensive specialist.

With exception of William Aviles, John Ho, Leonel Guzman, and Marcelino Arguelo who are seniors, most of the guys will be returning next season. This team has an enormous amount of talent along with remarkable intensity and enthusiasm, so be sure to look for Belmont to be a strong contender next year in the Northern League.

Potential Team

This year's Junior Varsity team had a reasonable season — reasonable because this is what Coach Hansen called as a building year. Their record of three and seven was not half-bad considering six out of the twelve players have never played before.

The team's offensive force was led by Song An with ten points a game, Captain Jesus Parra who averaged eight points a game, and Co-captain Jose Marquez who had seven points a game. Their defense was led by Ricky Ornelas who grabbed an impressive ten rebounds a game.

This team played well; they were competitive but they came up short most of the time. But Belmont's Junior Varsity team are expected to be a strong threat next year with returning team members and players coming up from the Bees.

The Belmont's had a tough, tough year. In spite of all the diligent practices and hustle, they won only four of sixteen games (two and eight in league). The highlight of the year was an exciting, hard-fought game against league champions Dorsey High, which the Sentinels lost by six points. All-league selections were Enrique De La Cruz and Quock Trieu.

The tallest man on this year's C team was 5'6". Since the Cs were outsized by most of the schools they played, they had to rely on speed, quickness, and teamwork to win.

The Cs started with a perfect record by winning all practice games and the first three league games. A letdown against Fairfax led to our fall. Coach Hansen believed in the Cs and convinced them that it was possible to win the remaining games.

The keys to success for a small team like the Cs are hard work, mental confidence, dedication, and wanting to win every time they step on to the court.

Lady Sentinels great!

Finishing with a 16-3 overall record and a 9-1 league record, the varsity girls basketball team had cause for jubilation. Their only league loss was to arch foe, Marshall High School; but the Lady Sentinels still won the league crown! In the first game of the city play-offs, Belmont easily rang Bell's gong. Tough, tough Hamilton was Belmont's Waterloo as they abruptly put an end to Belmont's great, great season in the city quarter-finals.

JV's miss league by one game

Totally awesome!

Yes. That was the Girl's Varsity Volleyball Team this year. Even though they only took Second place in League, their display of teamwork was outstanding. With Coach Barbara Fiege as their guide during those long practice hours, the improvement of all the team players was worth it.

Paulette Hall, who had no experience playing volleyball, was the star spiker of nearly all the games. Of course having Elizabeth Butterworth as Captain, it was evident she kept the Sentinel team high in spirits. The performances of Julia Ho and Vicky Melara, who was an unexperienced player, were excellent because of their strong spiking ability and the height of their jumps. The team's setters, Joannie Lum and Florencia Gaytan, did their job consistently well that it made putting our offensive plays to work possible. Elizabeth Lopez, Letty Rodriguez and Arlene Ventura also contributed to the great season with their fine skills.

This year's playoff competition was tough and our Girls' Varsity Team did not make it through the first round. They played to their highest potential and the pleasant memories will make this season an unforgettable part of the past year.

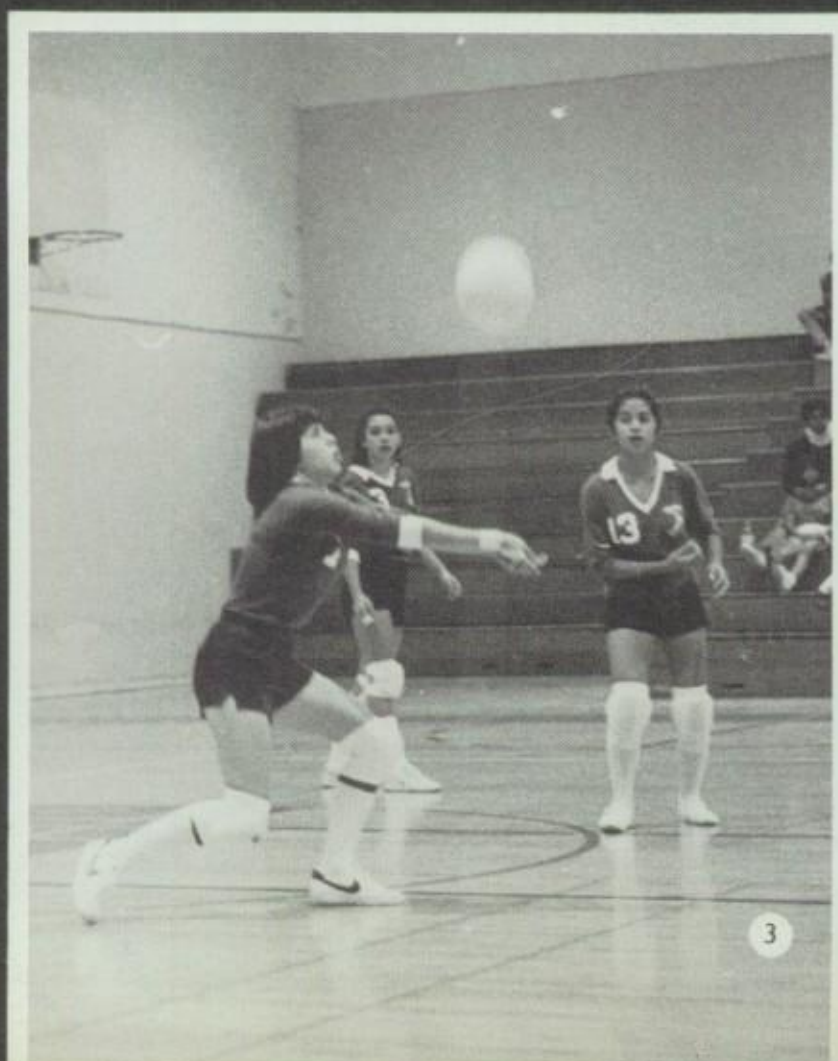

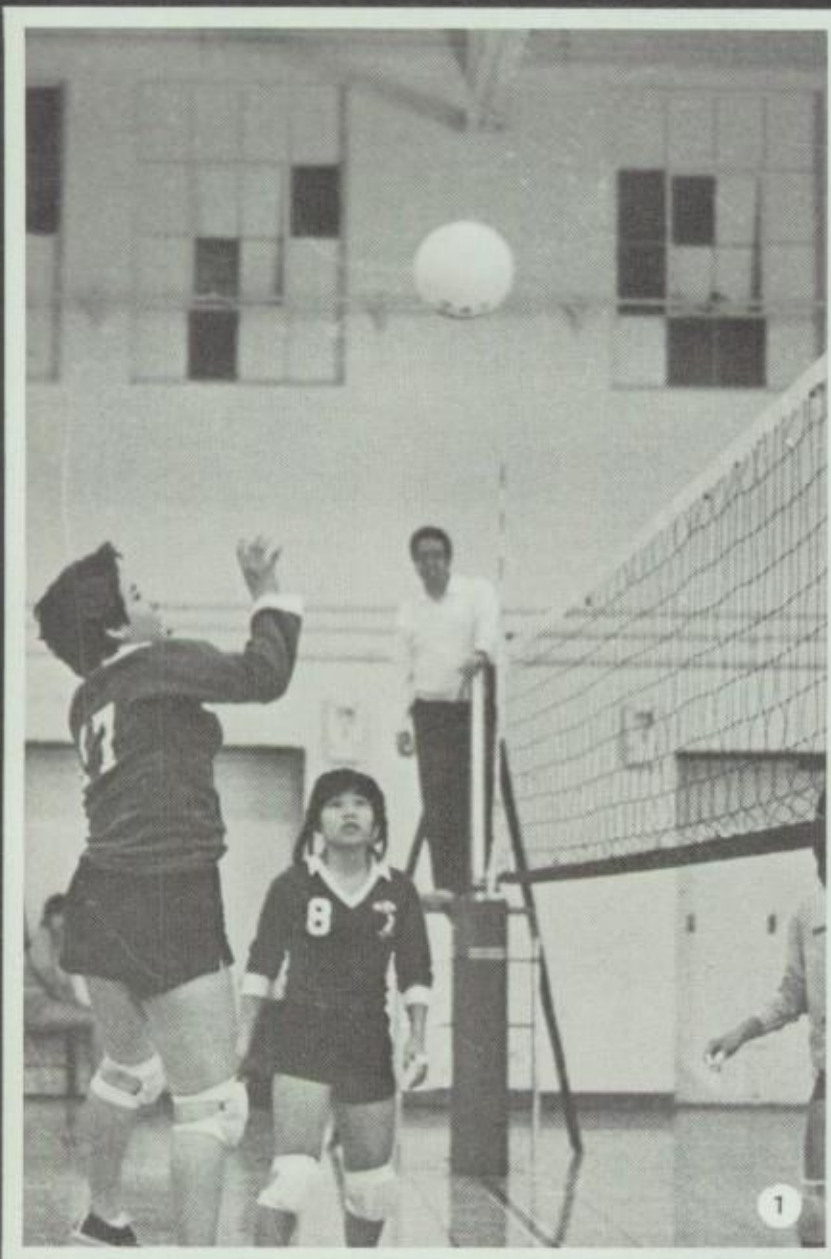

We'd like to express our gratitude to Miss Fiege for being so understanding and for teaching us the meaning and value of "teamwork."

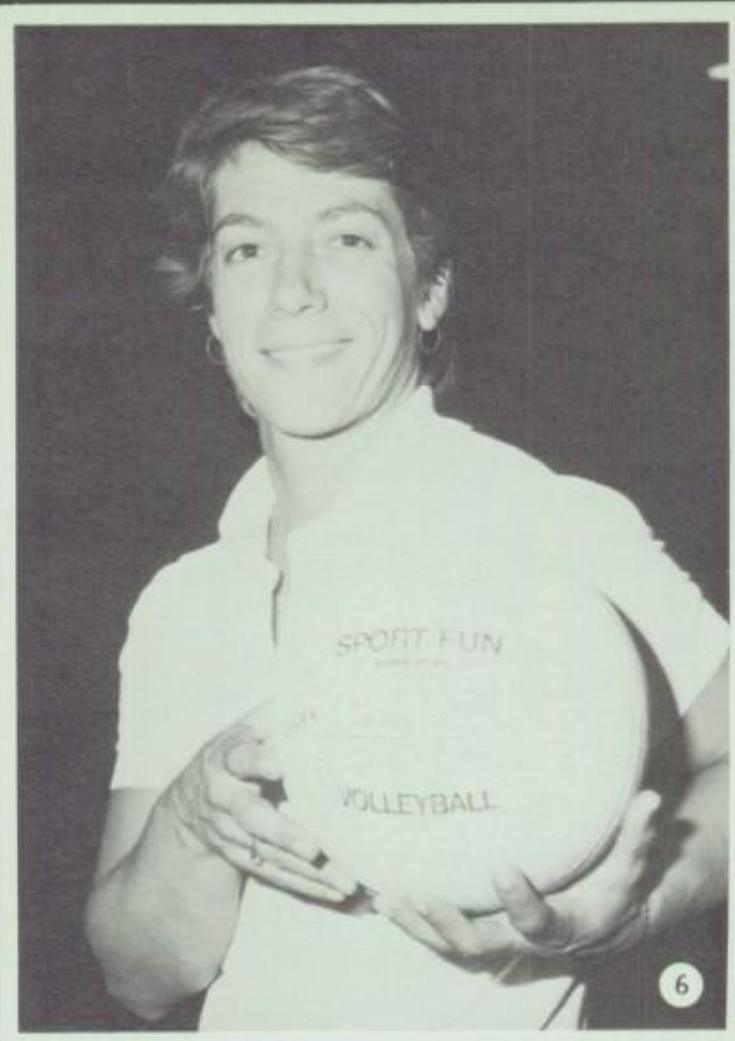

Thanks a lot, Coach!

High in spirits

For this year's Junior Varsity Volleyball Team, effort, enthusiasm, and determination were important in the team's struggle to learn the various skills involved becoming a strong, competitive Sentinel team.

With the guidance and support of their coach, Barbara Fiege, the Junior Varsity team had a spectacular season. Carrying on the tradition, they won the title of League Champions once again with zero losses, even though the team consisted of a majority of new, inexperienced players.

The competition in the city playoffs was strong, and the Sentinels did not make it past the first round. But all the long practice hours and fun made it a happy and memorable season.

It was a Belmont first for the Girls Tennis Team. For the first time in the history of the Girls' Tennis Team, Belmont had qualified for City Finals.

This season, the girls were determined enough to do better than the last two seasons combined. They finished the season with an overall record of 8-8.

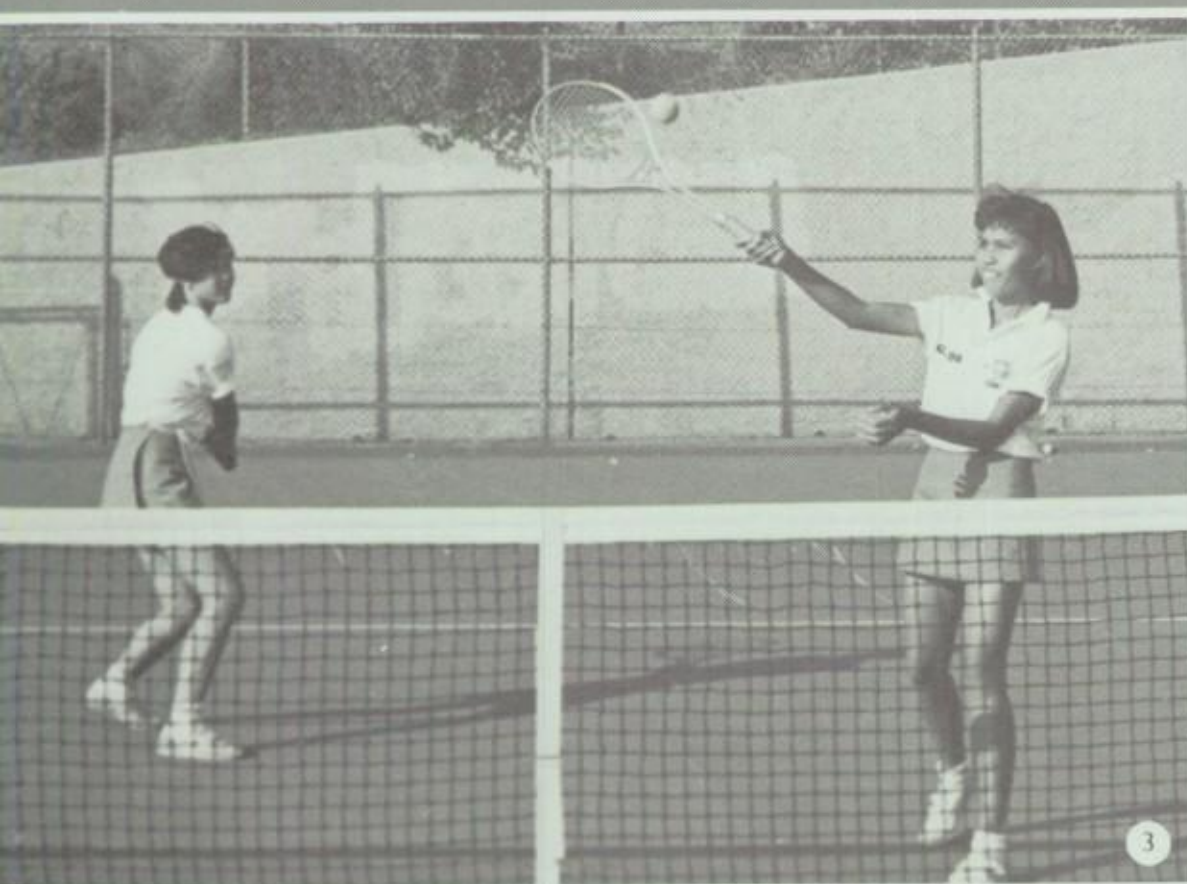

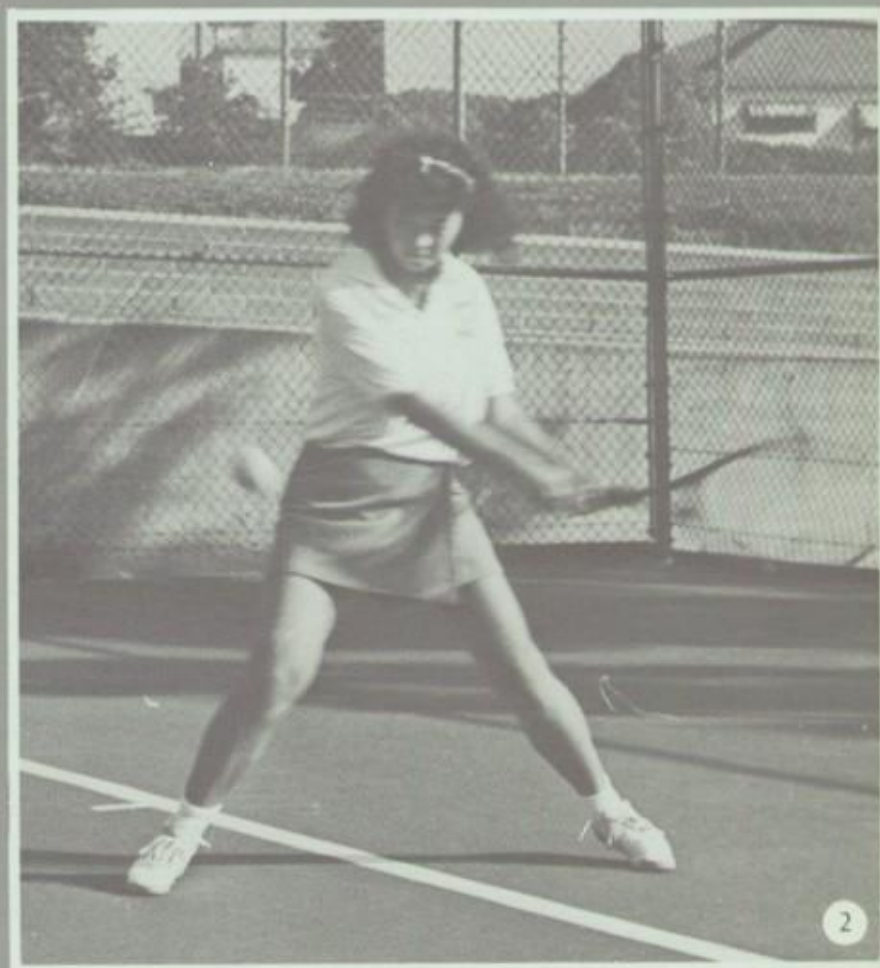

The outlook for next season looks bright. The team consisted of only two seniors; the rest of the team were either Juniors or Sophomores. Most of the team is expected to return next season.

Serving hard from the beginning, the boys' tennis team became successfully dominant due to constant pre-season matches. Strengthened by the return of past varsity members, this undefeated tennis team looks unbelievably strong as it enters league.

Returning varsity members include Michael Fritz, Varavut Limpasuvan, Edmond Lee, Huong Luong, Phe Ha, and Kwok Louie. They were joined by last year's greatly improved j.v.'s, Victor Vysosias and Arvin Torio. Ranjo Sagusay and William Kha, outstanding newcomers, added their talents to the already successful varsity racqueteers.

Led by Michael Fritz, Varavut Limpasuvan, Edmond Lee, and Ranjo Sagusay, in singles, the team destroyed such pre-season schools as Bell (Eastern League Champions), LA (Southern League Champions), and upper division Hamilton. Other victories include Garfield, Huntington Park, Roosevelt, and South Gate.

Remaining undefeated, the tennis team is a definite contender for the title of Northern League Champions and continues their quest for the first ever City Title.

Alive and kicking!

For the first time in the history of Belmont High, the soccer team brought home a city championship! But let's start at the beginning. We won the Northern League championship for the second consecutive year. Our record was 10-1-1 with the loss coming against our arch rival, Marshall High, by a score of 2-1. In the second round, we showed them who really was the best team in the league by defeating them 2-0.

We started the city play-offs by beating Narbonne 4-0 and San Fernando 2-0. In the semi-final game, we had a lot of trouble with highly-favored Kennedy High. At the end of regulation play, the score was 0-0. At the end of the first 10-minute overtime, the score was still 0-0. At the end of the second 10-minute overtime period, the score was still 0-0! At the end of the first five-minute overtime period, the score was still 0-0! At the end of the second five-minute period (you guessed it), the score was still 0-0! The outcome of the game came down to penalty shots with Belmont finally winning the sudden death phase. The final score was 1-0. On January 23, we played the city championship game against a very good team from Bell High, the team that knocked us out of the play-offs last year. It was a perfect time to get revenge! They took us by surprise by scoring the first goal in the first half, but we came back in the second half and tied the score at one. With only five minutes remaining, we scored the goal that gave us the first city championship in the history of Belmont High!

We are all proud of being on the soccer team, and we are also proud of being representatives of Belmont.

I would like to thank those people who supported us throughout the season — Coach Melin, Mr. Castaneda, Mr. Gomez, Mr. Rickert, Mr. Reilly, Mr. Erdmann and Mr. Howard. I also especially thank the faithful fans.

City Champs awesome again

The 1985 Varsity track team captured the Los Angeles City Championship for the first time in the history of Belmont H.S. Led by Roman Gomez' incredible triple wins (800m/1600m/3200m), Belmont scored 44 points to edge Gardena (43) and Kennedy (42). Manuel Gomez (3rd in the 1600m/5th in the 3200m), Oscar Pineda (5th in the 880), and Mario Serrano (4th in the shotput) finished the scoring. Roman went on to defend his double state championships (1600m/3200m) to cap an incredible H.S. career.

The 1986 team set out to emulate these successes. Through the middle of the season, all three teams (Varsity, Bees, Cees) were undefeated with only two teams on the horizon with potential to challenge them. The team's strengths included excellent front line talent and strong depth. The distance crew was awesome: Manuel Gomez (4:17 in '85/4:21, 8/9:26, 4), Tefere Gebre (4:22.2), Jorge Cabral (4:31), Rene Lopez (4:35), Hector Torres (4:44). Six 880 runners were capable of breaking the 2-minute barrier: George Duran (1:55.9 in 1985/1:59.9), Sepehr Eskandari (1:59.3), Gebre (2:00.8), George Quintana, M. Gomez, Cabral. The sprint crew alternated wins: Juan Leal, Cesar Rodriguez, Mark Lowe. Strong hurdlers performed at high levels: Herbert Carranza, Steve Smith, James Lopez, Andy Chavez, Cabral.

And the field events? 4 potential six footers: Eric Hu (6'), Leonel Guzman (6'), George Burgos. Three potential 20+ footers in the long jump: Leal (19'10), Chavez (19'3), Lowe (19'10). Shotput: Jesse Lopez (46' plus). Pole Vault: Carlos Pool (10' plus). Triple jump: Hu (40' plus).

Bee highlights were being provided by Froilan Tolentino, Dirk Stennett, William Lizama, and Quintana (sprints), David Grijalva (hurdles), Jose Zambrano, Martin Torres, Javier Fernandez, and Marcos Estrada (distances), Julio Guzman (pole vault), Ken Johnson (high jump), William Sexton and Rene Barraza (shotput), and Tolentino (long jump).

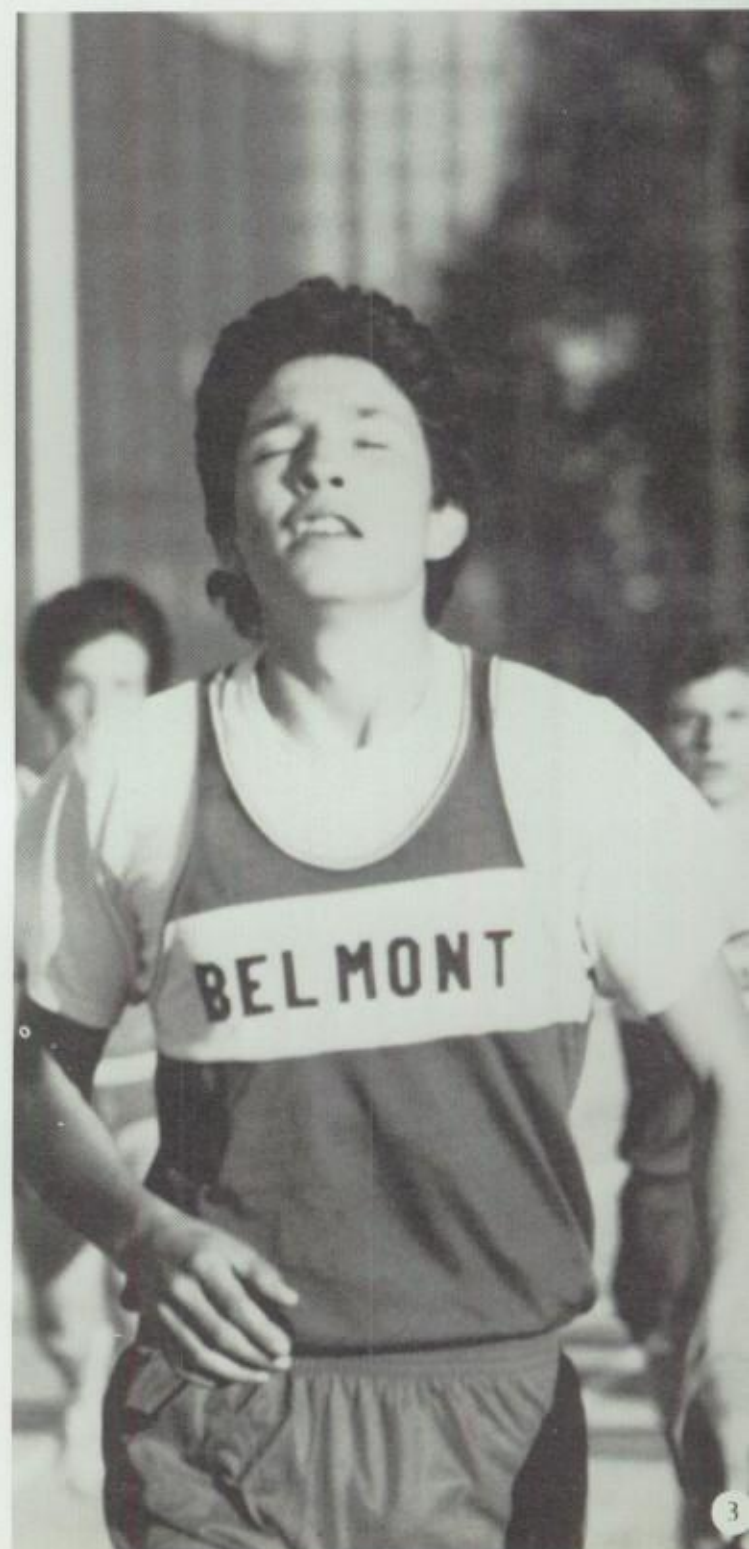

Cee Standouts included Felix Arevalo (distances), Darrell James, Jose Santos, Cesar Mejia, and Natividad Gaona (sprints), Sergio Lopez (hurdles), Joaquin Flores and Carlos Solis (shotput), Wilson Ascencio (long jump), and Pedro Barrientos (pole vault).

The Varsity had a running headstart on its fifth consecutive league title, the Bees its sixth in 7 years, and the Cees its sixth in a row. The strong Belmont track and field tradition appeared to be in good hands.

The 1986 Girl's Track Team opened the season with high expectations. Several experienced athletes returned from the outstanding '85 team. Four year returnee Angie Mancilla led a talented group of runners that included State qualifier Georgia McLean in the distances, sprinters Claudia Leal and Angelica Ramirez, hurdler Shirley Martin and field event specialist Julia Ho. Outstanding newcomers Paulette Hall and Elizabeth Martinez added needed depth to the team. Early season victories indicate another fine season for the Lady tracksters with their sights set finally on the Northern League Championship.

Swimming for the championship

Competitive swimming requires skills, endurance, hard work, and a lot of heart. The old saying "there is no gain without pain", certainly applies to swim team workouts. Ask any swimmer.

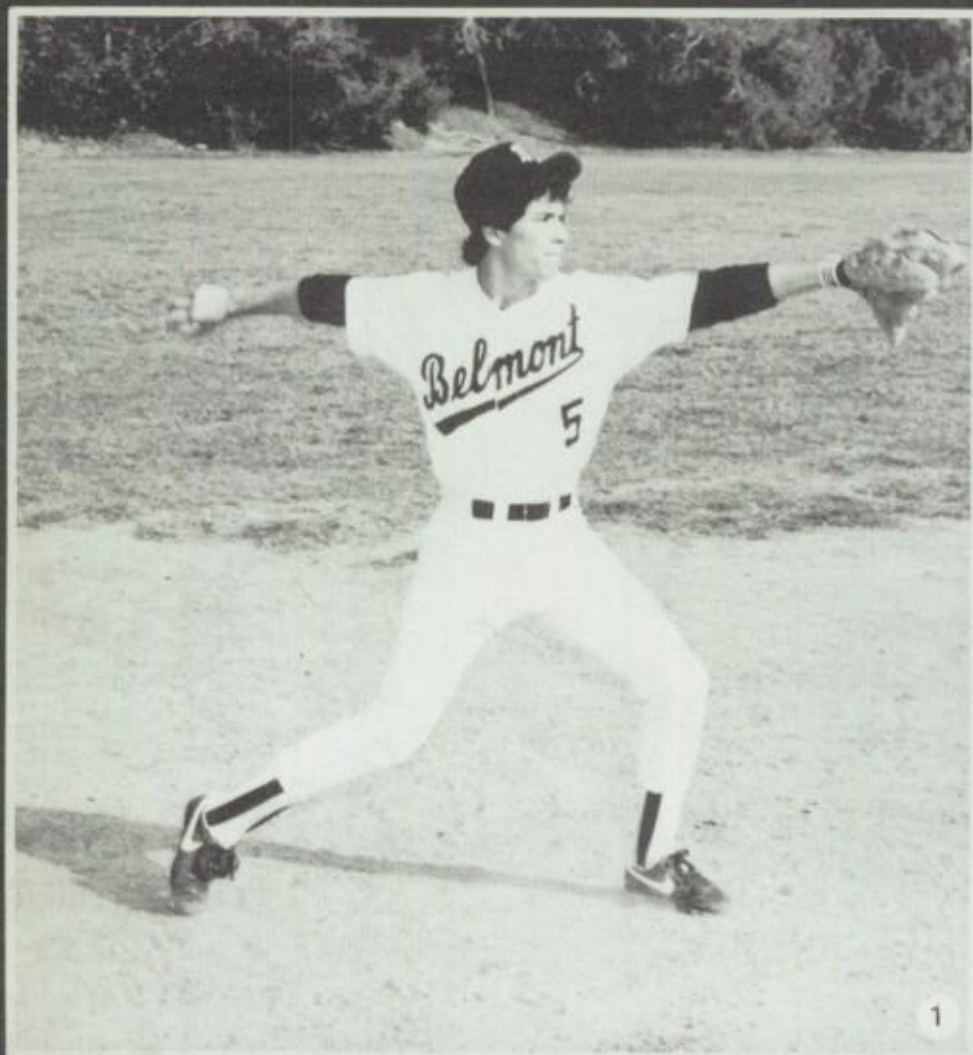

Belmont's swim team is only three years old. Being young and inexperienced, our team relies on hard work and dedication in order to win. For the 1986 swim team, this dedication paid off with a league championship. This year's season record was an outstanding 6 wins and 1 loss, losing only to Bell in the preseason.

Leading Belmont through an undefeated league season were Capt. Duc Truong and Co-Capt. Victor Quintanilla. As the season progresses, the team gained strength and disposed of the opposition almost routinely. Their victories included: Hamilton, Dorsey, Fremont, Washington, and L.A. The highlight of the season came when we traveled to the harbor and defeated the Banning High School Pilots.

Outstanding swimmers include: Duc Truong — 200 & 500 free, 400 free relay; Victor Quintanilla — medley relay, 100 free, 100 butterfly; Miguel Garcia — medley relay, 100 backstroke, 100 butterfly; Luis Martinez — medley & free relay, 50 & 100 free; Quan Nguyen — 200 individual medley, 100 breaststroke; Christine Rivera — 100 free, 100 backstroke; Norma Santana — 100 & 500 free; and Cynthia Gunera — backstroke and 100 free.

Coach

The Boys of Summer.

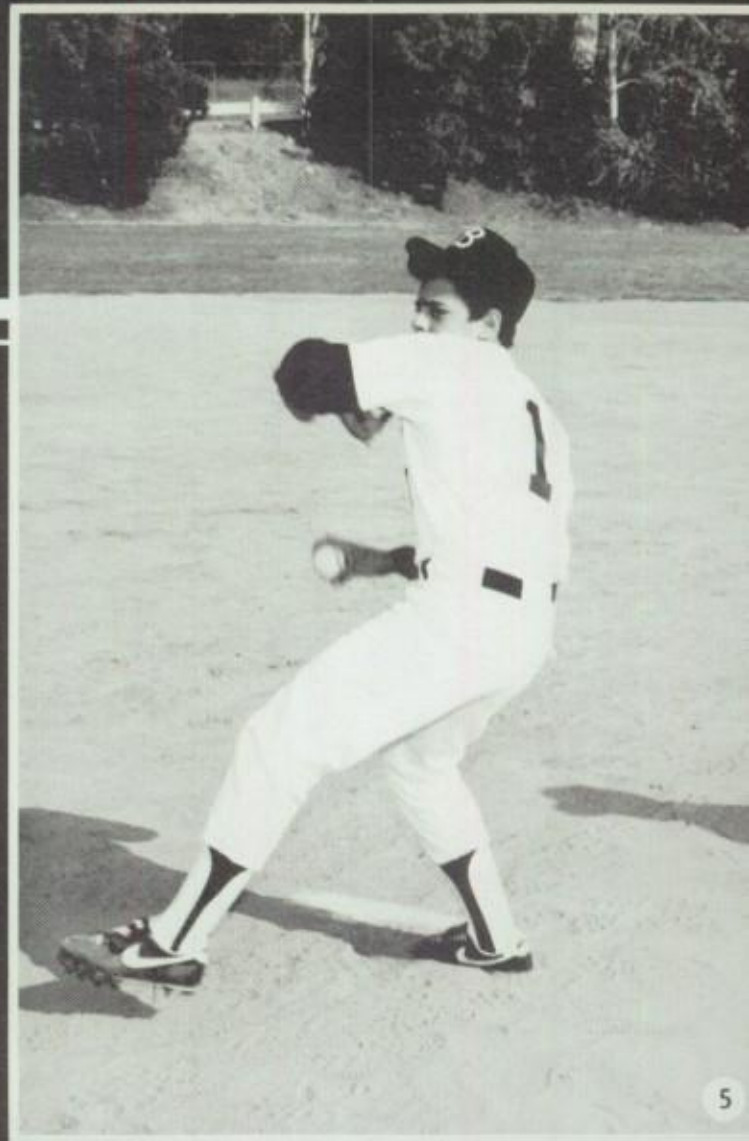

Victory in this battle is won when people think. Each one of us has a spirit, a principle, an essence, and an unfulfilled potential that gives us no rest, no peace of mind until it is realized. We strive for perfection to conceive and create, to imagine and enact, to dream and to fulfill our dreams, to be and to become what we want to be.

We, the seniors, want to thank Coach Arima and Coach Spera whom we believe are the best coaches. Their teachings on the field as well as off taught us the aim of life: to seek the perfection of yourself, to achieve happiness by creating excellence, and to be free to be what you are and to become what you could be.

#1 Varsity LEAGUE CHAMPS ***

Last year the Belmont Varsity Softball team displayed their outstanding athletic ability and sportsmanship with a 9-1 record. With this great record, they earned themselves the title of Mid-City League Champions.

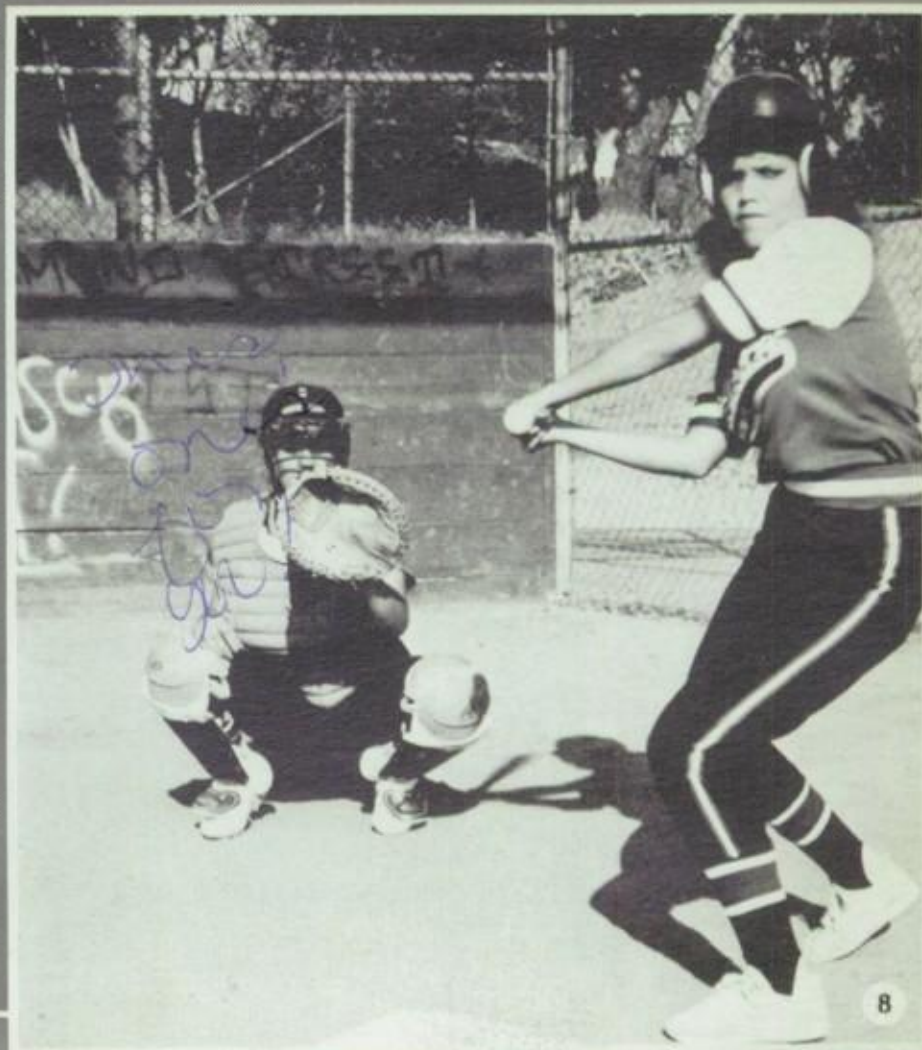

The Belmont pride was displayed everywhere they went especially when they were awarded the sportsmanship award at the South Gate tournament.

Then during the play-offs, Belmont played and fought hard but they came up short. Despite the devastating loss, the girls all agreed that they had enjoyed themselves throughout the season.

This year's Varsity team promises to be even better and stronger with their greatly improved offense and defense. Combine that with the expertise of Coach Moliterno and this team will go all the way.

Batter up.

Last year, Belmont's JV Softball team had a successful season. Through team work, we won the "Mid-city League Championship".

This year's team will have an equally successful season. We have many of the same elements that took us to the Championship last year.

We thank Mr. Levy for our success and his constant dedication and coaching.

To Class of '86:

We have spent the past four years together. Together, we have created a new and, I hope, a better Belmont. I thank each of you for what you have done for the school. I am proud of you as students and as human beings. My most sincere wish is that you all continue to strive, to "Reach Higher", everyday of your life. I know that the dynamic living of life and the sharing of your talent will continue to help you be the special people you are to me and others in our common society.

Dear Jackie -
 May you have fond memories of your history class. Have a good life... remember you'll get better not older as the years roll on! Best wishes,
 May Long

Capturing the Magic!

These magicians educate us!

Jackie - It was a pleasure having you in class this year. You're quite a reader. I hope you keep that habit all of your life. Go ahead and make a happy life. Mr. Chris McKenzie

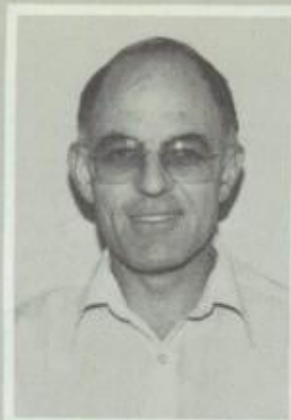

Best wishes to Jackie,
Have a happy future.

*Capturing
the Magic!*
We did it!

CAMPANILE STAFF, 1986. Row One: Ethel Valle, Claudia Leal, Arlene Ventura, Irma Torrico, Cathy Echeverria, Lori Fredeluces, Enrique Magana. Row Two: Anna Simonen, Ceci Galan, Anthony Binotapa, Bang Ly, Sandra Vasquez, Ernie Santos, Maria Peralta, Glen Pena, Peter Alegre, Ana Guizar, Oscar Orozco, Ana Figueroa, Silvia Guterrez, and Norma Santos.

It's Friday night, late — very late, the day of the final deadline. There are so many people to thank for getting us to this point all in one piece (but barely). First in line for thanks has to be Connie Butcher, our representative from Josten's. Her understanding, her patience, her warmth got us through many a day when all we felt like doing was quitting. Up at the plant in Visalia, Kim Robinson was invaluable and deserves many thanks as does Bob Hopkins. Al, Bill, Ray, Jean, and Lawan at Alfred and Fabris were always helpful. A very special thanks to Manny Armas, Manny Gomez, and Nelson Domingo who were a great help on the yearbook even though they were not on the staff. More special thanks to the faculty who so patiently put up with us and our interrupting schedules. And yet more special thanks to Hector De Leon, who missed the picture. And goodnight, D.G., where ever you are.

And as the year ends . . .

Capturing the Magic!

The annual spring musical is one of the sure signs that signals the end of the school year. In this year's musical, THE MUSIC MAN, (right) Terrence Cheung gets his just desserts from Geraldine Villegas as Wing Yu, the music man, looks on. Another sure sign that the end is in sight is an incurable disease called senioritis. Raul Barrera, below, has the malady in its advanced stages. The prom is the one event that makes seniors realize that it will soon be over. The last few weeks give some students pause for thought. Luz Duron, opposite page, stops for a few moments to reflect on the good times, the bad times, the happy moments, the sad moments, and to think about the future. Will it be college? a career? marriage? One thing is for sure; Belmont is almost over — a memory! The fun, the tests, the books, the games, the friends, the teachers will all be just a memory.

Saying goodbye to the magic!

It's too bad you're graduating already. You know the softball team is going to lose one of its greatest assets. It's been fun knowing you. I wish you the best in life. I know you could succeed at anything you do, just make believe you're striking out someone from Marshall. We'll till the next time.

for almost 3 years already Hey even though I haven't talked to you for a long time I still think your cool. You've been so nice, don't you ever change. Good luck in the future with every thing you do, and with the guys. Have fun in summer and in all the spare time you have left since you're graduating you'll have a lot of free time. I don't think I'll

a Very Nice Person I met at Belmont
I hope you won't forget me. 'Cuz
I won't forget you.

Look Babe I was nice knowing you
I won't forget the good times we spend together Look I won't ever forget that one day I almost had you but bad didn't want us to be together

Just remember that I always gonna be here as a good friend
You know something babe when I met you at softball I thought she's good in every single way and I hope one day she could be mine and that day come you were with me and believe me I was happy being with you.

but we're not meant to be together but at least I have good memories about us. You see! We're now good friends forever we're the best ones that!

Just remember about the Butterflies ok. we were the best ones that!

remember about the best ok. You see I'm the kind of person and we're gonna still be the best ok. and P.S. don't take your tongue out to much. Your the best! Sister in the whole world thanks.

P.S. I Love you 'Sis Your the best one ok.

Dear Jackie
Thank you for letting me sign your annual, I am deeply honored.
Second of all, I want to say that I'm very thankful to have met such a fantastic person like you.
I know your extreme motivational ability on the mound, you have sure put on outstanding performance and I have been lucky enough to have witness some of them. I also want to thank you for being on my great sports night team, remember! We have had a lot of fun in participating in athletics, Jackie!
Once again thank you Jockey!
and I know you will pitch outstanding performances in life, see "play ball!"

Dear Jackie,

Hi this chick well clin done and all I can say is that you've been a great friend. I'll never forget all we've been through, the tears, the secrets, the joys, everything. I'll never forget our last softball year because it was awesome we made it through 2nd round of playoffs + that's great isn't it. I'm gonna forget all those things people said about all that shit. We'll always be friends like we've always been O.K. You better keep in touch with me O.K. I'll call you once in a while. Well Jack what do we do know? Good luck wherever you go + whatever you do. Keep being great O.K. Be cool always. Take care + Be Good
